New Castle and Lawrence county are saddened today as the list of dead and injured in the Pennsylvania railroad wreck at Pittsburgh Monday night is seen in full. The tragedy took a heavy toll from this city for among the dead are a New Castle man and woman; and also some injured.

William M. Shaw, the engineer of the ill-fated train was a well known New Castle resident, living at 407 Cherry street, Seventh ward. It is believed certain that he was crushed among the wreckage of the engine as it toppled from the bridge.

Mrs. Wardrop Killed
One of the many tragedies of the wreck was the death of Mrs. W. Miller Wardrop, wife of the assistant to the general manager of the Pennsylvania railroad. Mrs. Wardrop was a New Castle woman, the

For Four Days Because Of Technicality
John R. McGuire, well known Pennsylvania railroad engineer, residing on North Cedar street, this city, who was reported by morning newspapers as being the engineer at the helm of the Pennsylvania train wrecked in Pittsburgh last night, might have been on that "run" but wasn't.

Mr. McGuire operates a Pennsy train from Akron to Pittsburgh every other day but on last Saturday he made his final trip for the month because of having reached his limit in "time". (Pennsy railroad engineers are allowed to work a certain number of hours in one month and no more.) Mr. McGuire returns to work on Thursday, March 1.

PA NEW OBSERVES

In front of The News today was an automobile with Maryland license plates, the curious part of which was the word "tercentenary" under the license numbers. Pa New takes it that Maryland is having an anniversary. It would be the 300th wouldn't it?

Pa New saw one man chopping the ice off of the hood of his automobile, with an ice pick.

Snow Shovellers Escape Death In Train Plunge

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 27.—A 60-year-old CWA worker showered thanks upon "Lady Luck" today for saving his life in the wreck of a Pennsylvania passenger train on the North Side last night.

The words of gratitude came from Michael Welsh who with a companion, James Welsh, 35, no relative, was shoveling snow directly under the bridge from which the locomotive toppled in its plunge to the street.

Immediately before the crash, the men discontinued shoveling and stepped to the sidewalk. Then came the crash. The locomotive fell and shortly thereafter a coach dropped upon it.

Part of a fence loosened by the falling car pinned the elder Welsh to the ground. His companion, who escaped, summoned help and released the aged man who suffered severe bruises and the ill effects of exposure.

Mercury Again Far Below Zero

(International News Service)
Still buried under the deepest snow of the winter, Pennsylvania today experienced another icy blast that sent February low temperature records tumbling in all sections of the state.

As if determined to leave no doubt of severity of February, 1934, sharp, biting winds swept over the state causing untold suffering and adding continually to the month's death toll.

Venango county retained the distinction of being Pennsylvania's icebox. At Van the mercury dropped to 28 degrees below while official readings of 30 and 16 below were recorded at Hampton Station and Franklin, respectively. Kane shivered with an official reading of 19 below.

Removing Snow From Streets Here

After refusing to approve snow removal from city streets as a CWA project, the State Administrator reversed himself late Monday afternoon and wired Deputy Administrator Mathew Gunton here that such work was approved, if the city would hire the trucks for the work.

Sixty men were on the streets today moving the snow, and the ten trucks used were hired by the City of New Castle. One slight accident occurred as the result of the snow removal.

The trucks are dumping the snow into the Neshannock river at the mill near the Central Fire station. The Hunter Wet Wash laundry is nearby and the city wires holding up the smoke stack are hooked into the ground. One of the trucks took a guy wire out and the stack wobbled around for a moment or two, soot scattered itself all over the landscape and some repairs are necessary.

Another Bump Says Bratschie

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 27.—"Just another bump in life," That's how Clarence A. Bratschie, of 201 Elm street, New Castle, a student of Western Theological seminary, expressed his reaction to the disastrous wreck of the Akron-Pittsburgh passenger train.

"When I woke from the crash," he said, "I thought I was reaching for my hat and coat on the train but found I was in the hospital. Just another bump in life."

He was returning to school here after a three-day visit at his home.

Eleventh Hour Rush For Drivers' Licenses

It looked like a Christmas rush in the post office Monday, although the line this time was formed in front of the money order window instead of the parcels post window.

All day long there was a crowd at the money order window and ninety nine per cent of the customers wanted a two dollar money order.

The reason for it all was that Monday was the last day to get remittances to Harrisburg in time to get drivers' license back before March 1.

Mercury Falls To
Low Point Again
Sub-Zero Temperatures Are Noted Throughout County
This Morning

With a low mark of 26 below zero reported at East Brook, and the official government thermometer's 14 below, another frosty morning was experienced by the residents of New Castle and Lawrence county. At Lakewood, according to John Rung, the mercury stood at 14 below at 11 p. m. last night, fell to 26 below at 5 o'clock this morning and was 20 below at 8 o'clock.

Indications pointed to the day being warmer than yesterday advance weather reports predicting warmer weather during the day. By 9 o'clock this morning it had risen to 2 below zero.

The temperature record for the current month has broken all existing records at the local observing station. In Pittsburgh, the records reveal that the temperatures so far this month have been exceeded only by marks established in February of 1875, when the monthly average was a fraction above 11 degrees. The average here will likely be under this mark.

D. C. Mackey, Sheridan Avenue, Went To Train With
C. J. Mayer

When D. C. Mackey, of 515 Sheridan avenue, took his brother-in-law, C. J. Mayer of Ingram, Pa., to the train Monday evening neither of them had any idea it would be the last time they would be together in this life. Less than two hours later, Mayer was dead, buried in the wreckage of the Pennsylvania train that crashed through the bridge near the Federal street station, Pittsburgh.

Worked In Ellwood City
Mr. Mayer who was about 48 years of age is married to the sister of Mr. Mackey. Some years ago he worked in the Shelby Tube plant in Ellwood City and before that had resided near Portersville. Several years ago he went into business with a relative in Pittsburgh and his trip to New Castle Monday was in connection with the settling of a business deal he made when he disposed of property he owned in Lawrence County.

When he had finished his business he went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mackey and had dinner with the family. Dinner over they sat around chatting and about 7:30 p. m. Mackey took Mr. Mayer to the Pennsylvania station where he boarded the bus for New Castle Junction.

Mr. and Mrs. Mackey are grief stricken today as they recall the pleasant dinner scene but a few short hours ago and today their brother-in-law is dead. They left at noon for Pittsburgh to be with Mr. Mackey's sister in Ingram.

Of NRA Conditions

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Opening NRA's first conference of criticism, Administrator Hugh S. Johnson, assumed the role of critic No. 1 today as he assailed the authors of "Furtive Inuendo, outright lies or half baked and ignorant assertions respecting acts and policies" of the NRA.

The general stand before an audience of several thousand, numbering about 200 "registered" critics invited to gather at five separate conferences to "obtain all possible criticism and suggestion concerning all phases of the NRA program."

Johnson, however, ruled the critics might not attack individual codes. This phase will be discussed next week when the various code authorities meet in open sessions to consider revision of the 350 individual peace pacts already signed by President Roosevelt.

Explaining the character of the session opening today and lasting during the week, Johnson said: "The purpose of this meeting is to make it a roundup of every kind of helpful comment that has been produced as a result of six months of operation under the president's re-employment agreement and codes. That should be time enough to give us some real results of experience."

12 Big Needs
Johnson gave a list of 12 needs of the NRA requiring immediate attention. They were:

"Train Seemed To Go Flying Through Air"

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—A graphic description of the horror which followed derailment of a crack Pennsylvania railroad train at Pittsburgh with a loss of at least seven lives was given by survivors on their arrival here today.

"The train seemed to go flying through the air," said A. D. Simpson of Cincinnati, who was aboard when the flier left the rails and plunged into a Pittsburgh street. "I was in the pullman car which hung over the precipice. I was reading a paper. Suddenly there was a jolting and the car seemed to go flying through the air. It teetered and rocked and we could hear the awful crash. None of us realized what had happened but we wanted to get out of there."

"We ran to the rear door and got out, then some of us went down to help. There wasn't much we could do. I saw three bodies being taken out. They were horribly mangled."

W. F. Bloor, of Akron, O., was in the rear coach of the train when, as he described it, "it tore off the tracks."

"When we got out the engine was hanging at an angle of 45 degrees," he said. "We could hear people screaming and groaning. For a while we couldn't realize just what had happened. Thank God I escaped without any injury. All I lost was my hat."

Rumors Flooding Austrian Capital

(International News Service)
VIENNA, Feb. 27.—The Austrian capital today was flooded with a torrent of rumors regarding Austria's immediate fate, variously indicating restoration of the monarchy, a fascist dictatorship under the Heimwehr, union with Germany, and other possibilities.

Each rumor was formerly denied by the authorities respectively concerned, and a clear picture of the true situation was difficult to obtain.

Out of this maze of talk, these facts stood out:
1. Prince Ernst Rudiger von Starhemberg's armed fascist Heimwehr was being swept by a powerful wave of sentiment favoring restoration of the monarchy, with the young Archduke Otto returned to Vienna and placed upon a Hapsburg throne.

2. Heimwehr troops were on the move throughout the country, being shifted freely from post to post. (Continued On Page Two)

(International News Service)
Counting its dead in scores, the nation today began to repair the havoc wrought by a three-day period of snow, high winds and bitter cold, studied with disasters of major proportions.

The death toll in accidents directly traceable to the cold took an upward jump when a crack Pennsylvania railroad train struck a frozen switch and plunged through a bridge at Pittsburgh. Seven bodies were recovered. Three others are missing and believed dead.

With heavy casualties recorded in a tornado which swept three southern states, the total killed throughout the country is mounting.

W. M. Shaw, Engineer, of New Castle, One of Missing—Wreck Occurs In Pittsburgh As Akron To Pittsburgh Train Hits Frozen Switch and Engine and Two Cars Topple Off Elevated Right of Way—Fifty Persons Injured.

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 27.—The seventh victim of the Pennsylvania passenger train wreck on the North Side here last night was identified today as railroad officials investigated the tragedy while rescuers pried into the twisted steel and debris for two men believed to be missing.

Wrecking crews worked speedily to clear the tracks and make repairs to the bridge over which the locomotive and two coaches en route from Akron, O., to Pittsburgh plunged taking a toll of possibly nine lives and injuring nearly 50 persons.

Identified Dead
The seventh victim was identified as Mrs. W. Miller Wardrop, Sewickley, Pa. Others who met death were F. R. Dravo, Sewickley, Pa.; David A. Ducharme, 50, Ansonia, Conn.; Clarence J. Mayer, 45, Ingram, Pa.; and Thomas Jeffries, 45, Youngstown, O. Negro. Two women, one a Negress, are unidentified at the city morgue.

The missing were W. M. Shaw, New Castle, engineer, and O. C. Douthitt, Youngstown, fireman, both members of the ill-fated train crew.

Railroad workers were convinced a frozen switch caused the wreck but Pennsylvania officials would advance no cause pending completion of an official investigation already underway.

FINEFROCK TELLS OF GOLD PROSPECTING

New Castle Man Home From West

Has Been Prospecting In Foothills Of Rocky Mountain Area

HAD MEMORABLE SEA VOYAGE HOME

Home again after nearly a year's absence, Fred Finefrock returns in a new role, that of gold miner. For the past seven or eight years he has been roaming the seven seas as an able bodied seaman, but last fall with a companion of the north, prospecting in the foothills of the Rockies, near Cherokee, California.

Back in '49 this district was the scene of the famous gold strikes that sent thousands of people rushing to the west coast. With the price of gold up, placer miners are again prospecting there, and Finefrock and his pal took a flyer along with hundreds of others. They dug out some gold but were forced to quit when high water washed out their sluice boxes.

Eating Regally
"We certainly had great food there," said Finefrock. "The law permits prospectors to shoot birds and game out of season and we had quail, deer, duck, salmon and frogs legs whenever we wanted them. Our claim was located on the north branch of the north fork of Feather River, about 87 miles from Sacramento."

When high water forced the miners out, Finefrock went back to his occupation that of seaman, and shipped out on a tanker. He made one round trip to the east before coming home this time and on the recent trip up from Colon, Panama, his ship nearly foundering in heavy seas. The lifeboats were smashed, housing torn off, and for several days the crew wore life belts as they did their work, expecting any minute to be ordered to abandon ship. They were four days late getting into Providence, Rhode Island, and the ship is now laid up for repairs.

Finefrock will leave Thursday for Baltimore, Md., where he will ship out on another oil tanker for the Dutch West Indies.

Five mutilated bodies were dragged from the twisted steel and taken to the city morgue. All available policemen, patrol cars and ambulances, were rushed to the scene. Physicians and nurses were drafted from several hospitals as the rescue work was speeded.

Acetylene torches were put into play as rescuers tore away at the coaches to get at the trapped victims. Those seriously injured were carried from the scene on stretchers and rushed to hospitals in ambulances, police cars, and private automobiles.

The body of Frank R. Dravo, Sewickley, Pa., aged head of a large construction company here, was identified while still pinioned in the wreckage. J. Daniel Berg, a director of the Dravo Construction Company,

Mr. Wardrop was later at Ft. Mr. and Mrs. Wardrop resided in Sewickley and last night Mrs. Wardrop boarded the train at Sewickley with a friend of the family, F. R. Dravo, president of the Dravo Construction Company. She was to meet Mr. Wardrop in Pittsburgh where they had a social engagement with friends.

Was Indifferent
The state's child specialist is expected to reiterate previous testimony that she was indifferent to Dr. Kennedy's courtship, that it was he—and not she—who pressed the suit, that she did not keep the supposed fatal trust and finally that the victim was not slain—that he died as the result of his own excesses.

The state today prepared, meanwhile, to cross-examine Mrs. Ruth Dean Boyle, elderly aunt of the defendant, who outlined Dr. Dean's alibi.

been on the passenger run from Akron to Pittsburgh since January 18. Prior to that he had been on a Cleveland-Conway freight run but had had previous passenger experience. In his family are his wife, Mrs. Mary J. Shaw, three daughters, Mrs. William Maloney of Inglewood, California, Mrs. William Jolley, of West Cherry street, Miss Isabelle Shaw, at home, and two sons, Clyde and Russell Shaw of New Castle.

Immediately after the accident happened wreckers were on the scene. No local wreck trains were called. Superintendent C. W. Van Nort of the E. & A. division said, as the Pittsburgh district had sufficient equipment.

Notify Families
Through the local offices of the Pennsylvania, families of the afflicted passengers were notified and many of them hurried to Pittsburgh early today.

Mrs. Alan W. Urmon of Maitland Lane, a relative of the late Mrs. W. Miller Wardrop received a letter from her on Monday in which she said that she was going on a trip. It is thought she may have been just starting on the trip Monday evening.

One other Erie and Ashtabula division employee was killed beside Engineer W. M. Shaw. The fireman of the train, O. C. Duetthuit was a resident of Youngstown, O. The train in the wreck is scheduled through New Castle Junction at 8:15 P. M. according to local Pennsylvania officials. It connected with an eastbound train at Pittsburgh at 9:25.

In all nine people are dead and 37 injured. F. R. Dravo, president of the Dravo Contracting Company of Pittsburgh who was killed was a first cousin of Mrs. Robert K. Aiken of Highland avenue. Mrs. Aiken is in Orlando, Florida at the present time.

Funeral Not Yet Arranged

Funeral services for the late Mrs. W. Miller Wardrop, killed in the Pennsylvania Railroad wreck in Pittsburgh Monday night, have not yet been arranged. Carl W. Hanna stated today. Mr. Hanna was in telephonic communication with Mr. Wardrop this morning.

Mrs. Wardrop's maiden name was E. I. Hannay Donnan, the daughter of the late Dr. E. A. Donnan and Ada Barker Donnan. For many years Dr. Donnan was a prominent physician of this city. Mrs. Donnan died several years ago.

Mrs. Wardrop was born June 30, 1886. In 1907 she was married to Mr. Wardrop, the wedding taking place in the First Presbyterian church of which church she was a member for many years. She is survived by her husband, a daughter, Ada B. 25, Edmond D. 23, now in Florida, and Robert, a student in Princeton University.

to maintain wages at a decent standard against the certain results of predatory and cut-throat competition, and further insurance against increase of price faster and further than increase of purchasing power.

2. A more effective rule on costs for the purpose of maintaining rules against sales below costs of production.

3. Uniformity of wages and hourly rates in competitive industries.

4. Uniform classification of areas for the purpose of the north-south differentials.

5. Further reductions in hours per week and further increase in hourly wages.

6. Certainty of protection against monopoly control and oppression of small enterprise, and especially, the inclusion in codes of adequate buying (as well as selling) provision to guard against oppression of small business.

7. A much improved method for securing prompt and effective compliance on code authorities.

8. A safe method of financing code administration without racketeering and abuse.

9. Elimination of inconsistent or conflicting provisions among various codes.

10. Adequate labor and consumer representation in an advisory capacity on code authorities.

11. Uniformity of governmental representation on code authorities.

12. Wider use of mechanism for settling labor disputes in connection with code administration.

Johnson denied the "blue eagle" delivered less than was promised for him, and that the NRA has increased prices faster than purchasing power and so has done more harm than good.

RUMORS FLOODING AUSTRIAN CAPITAL

mors they were being massed on the German border and others that they were being prepared for a "march on Vienna" all were emphatically denied.

2. Germany and Italy began an active verbal warfare, each accusing the other of meddling in Austria's internal affairs for selfish profit. The German press attacked Premier Mussolini as promoting Prince Otto's restoration, and Italy continued to denounce an alleged German attempt to create a Nazi Austria.

The movement for the restoration of the monarchy under Prince Otto, long smoldering and in recent weeks growing brighter hourly, reached the highest point of its history in Vienna last night at a giant mass meeting of 4,000 enthusiastic proponents of the monarchist cause.

burgh and surrounding points shortly after day-break to shatter a 63-year-old frigid mark.

Winter's icy hand also was felt in Philadelphia, that city reported 8-degree above weather while adjacent points experienced near zero weather. Similar temperatures prevailed throughout central Pennsylvania.

Drifting snow offered a new obstacle to state highway and CWA workers who turned out en masse in municipalities and all sections of the Commonwealth to clear roads.

Additional fears were caused by the possibility of floods expected along the state's rivers if a sudden melting spell sets in.

While motor and railroad transportation crawled along at a slow pace, airplane travel remained at a standstill. Three vessels went aground in the Delaware river while ice-breakers fought to keep open a channel.

Other below zero readings reported were: Clintonville, 21; Stoneboro, 22; Polk, 19; Coopersburg, Wesley, Utica, all 19; Oil City, 6; Natrona, 5; Brookside, 6; and Pittsburgh, three; Montrose, three; Gracedale, two.

NEW CASTLE CHAPTER CLOSES SOCIAL SEASON

More than two hundred enjoyed the closing social event of the current year of New Castle Chapter 105 O. E. S. of which Miss Gertrude Potter is worthy matron, Monday evening in the west dining room of the cathedral.

Cards were the entertainment of the evening, with prizes, a high score presented at each table. The door prizes were won by Emily Lou Smith, Matilda Chapman and Jane Smith.

Concluding cards, the small tables were used for serving delicious refreshments. Mrs. Hazel Boyd was general chairman of arrangements, with Mrs. Daisy Brodbeck and Mrs. Frances Jones acting as hostesses.

Aides were Jennie Martin, Mary Jenkins, Daisy Mitchell, Amanda Halley, Edith Pearce, Marie Swartzlander, Doris Sankey, Marguerite Mullen, Elsie Wetmore and Reba Frank.

Party For Nurses

Mrs. Joseph Travers, Hillcrest avenue, entertained a group of nurses Monday evening in her home, as a farewell before they leave for Pittsburgh to further their training in the children's hospital.

An evening of music and dancing was enjoyed with a delicious menu of refreshments. St. Patrick's suggestions were used in appointments. The nurses in the group, students of the New Castle hospital, were Alice Kennedy, Anna Armand, Mary Elizabeth Fee, Melissa Badger, Dorothy Williams, Jeanette Meiter.

Conclude Visit Here

Miss Dorothy Ann Dietrich and Edwin C. Christine have returned to Washington, D. C., after visiting Mr. Christine's father, John C. Christine, 341 Shaw street, this city. Miss Dietrich and Mr. Christine were recently announced engaged. The marriage will take place at the home of Miss Dietrich's parents at Easton, Pa., in April.

DR. AND MRS. DODDS HONORED BY ALUMNI

After many years out in the world practicing what they had been taught by Dr. Samuel Dodds, an instructor in Grove City College, a number of the alumni of that seat of learning assembled in the Castleton Hotel Monday evening to do honor to him and his wife.

At 6:30 a delicious dinner was served with places arranged for 40. Judge R. L. Hildebrand acting as toastmaster.

Remarks were made by Wylie McCaslin, R. L. Wallace, Rev. W. F. Byers, C. V. Alley, Mont L. Alley, Carl Baldwin, Dr. C. C. Green and Dr. C. B. Wingerd. Many reminiscences of college days were recalled.

Dr. Dodds responded most graciously, thanking the former students for their interest in him after all the years since they had been under his tutelage.

Arrangements for the event were in the hands of Dr. W. L. Campbell, Alice Sterling and Mrs. Mont Alley.

CURRENT EVENTS

CLASS MEETS AT Y. W.

Current Events class met regularly Monday afternoon in the Green room at the Y. W. C. A. with Mrs. Leslie Wilson hostess.

Usual topics of current interest were given in response to roll call after which the members indulged in a general discussion. There were fifteen in attendance.

The next meeting will be held Monday, March 12, at the home of Mrs. H. E. Bleakley, 218 East Lincoln avenue.

Modern R. G.'s

The Modern R. G. club gathered at the home of Miss Helen Jane Drok in on Hamilton street, for a social period. Music, dancing and refreshments were pleasures, the hostess' mother assisting.

Those in attendance were Misses Elizabeth Ann Oprea, Florence Mae Farou, Pauline Olean, and Mrs. John Bludorn.

The next meeting will be held March 2 at the home of Miss Olean.

Depression Party

The Depression club held a meeting at their club room on Wilson avenue when the following officers were elected: President B. Rzeczniak, vice president: Wyne Pack, secretary, Mike Baka treasurer, Harry Strawniak.

The evening was spent playing checkers, cards and banjo music. The next meeting will be held on Saturday.

Entertain Guests

Dr. and Mrs. John Palazzo, of South Mill street, entertained a number of guests in their home on Sunday night. Cards, music and chat formed the diversions. At a seasonable hour the hostess served an appetizing luncheon.

W. W. M. G. CLASS HAS ANNUAL BANQUET

The Men's Bible class room of the Third United Presbyterian church was the scene of a most delightful affair Monday evening when the members of the W. W. M. G. class assembled for the annual banquet.

At 6:30 the guests were ushered to the dining room led by the teacher, who has led them spiritually for the past twelve years, Mrs. Robert Vorous. The decorations were simple but effective, carrying out the class colors of purple and gold. Unique purple books in which there was a jumble of letters, marked each place and when the jumble was straightened out, the guests found their places. Upon opening the book a puzzle menu was found, also songs and ditties, which fitted into appropriate places as the different courses of the dinner were served.

Miss Jane Kyle acted as toastmistress and filled the role most gracefully, as in her skilled manner she placed each one under the fire of her wit and humor at some time during the evening.

Mrs. Gomer Emery gave two excellent piano numbers: "Modern Improvisation" and "The Rosary." Mrs. LeRoy Book and Mrs. Ernest King sang "Bells of St. Mary" and the president, Miss Margaret Sankey, spoke briefly.

The Rev. J. M. Guthrie, pastor of East Brook United Presbyterian church, was introduced and he won the admiration of all by the clever way in which he refused to be called an after dinner speaker. He left some splendid thoughts with his hearers.

The program closed with the singing of "Good Night Ladies."

The excellent menu was prepared and served by Section D of the Y. L. B. Class, while the success of the event was due the efforts of Ernest King, Leroy Book, William Kyle, and Margaret Sankey.

Special guests were Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Guthrie, Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Colton, Mrs. C. G. Bower, Susan Wallace, Gomer Emery and M. Guthrie.

E. F. G. MARPER TO ADDRESS D. A. R.

An address by E. F. G. Harper, one of New Castle's attorneys, Pennsylvania State president of the Sons of the American Revolution, will feature the meeting of Lawrence chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution Saturday afternoon in the home of Miss Mary Clarke on Boyles avenue.

Mr. Harper's subject is "The American Menace" and an interesting, as well as informative discussion, is being anticipated.

Farwell Gathering

Saturday evening, members numbering fifty, of the Italian Christian church gathered at the home of Miss Theresa Pascarella on Croton avenue, as a farewell in honor of Frank Fortunato who is leaving Saturday morning for Jeannette, Pa., where he will take up missionary work.

A very interesting program was carried out by Henry Ludewise with songs and Bible questions asked by Rev. Maruso.

Special numbers were rendered by Miss Theresa Pascarella, Rose Miller, Albert Melandro and Henry Ludewise with Jane Valentino as pianist.

At the close of the program, a delicious lunch was served by Miss Theresa Pascarella assisted by Mrs. Nick Pascarella and Algie Pascarella.

Postpone Butler Visit

On account of the deep snow and condition of the highways the visit of the New Castle Assembly 1, Order of Rainbow for Girls to Maquedda Chapter O. E. S. Butler, this evening has been postponed.

Bridge Postponed

The bridge party scheduled for tonight at the home of Mrs. E. W. Guy, West Madison avenue, with a committee from the B. P. W. club in charge, has been postponed indefinitely.

SHENANGO CHAPTER CHOIR ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Estella Weddell and Mrs. Agnes Allen, past matrons of Shenango Chapter, No. 333, O. E. S., collaborated with Mrs. Belva Bridenbaugh, worthy matron, in entertaining members of the chapter's choir in a local tea room last evening.

Covers were laid for 25 at small tables, a color scheme of black and white being carried out in table appointments. The after dinner hours were spent with bridge, 500, and other games. Awards were presented Mrs. Reva Gormley at bridge, Mrs. Harriet Hammond in 500, and Mrs. Anna Stump in the other games.

On Thursday evening, the chapter will entertain its members and friends at a bridge party in the west dining room of The Cathedral, with the present officers in charge of arrangements.

MUSIC CLUB HEARS AMERICAN NUMBERS

Mrs. D. Duff Scott, Mrs. Paul A. Welsh and Miss Elsie Calvin were elected as the year's nominating committee at the meeting of the Music Club Monday evening in Highland U. P. church.

Mrs. Paul Welsh proved a pleasing hostess in presenting a traditional American program. Before each number, Mrs. Burr M. Rogers fittingly reviewed the program.

Stephen Foster was represented by a sextette composed of Mrs. Robert E. Flemming, Mrs. William J. Caldwell, Mrs. Clifford Probst, William McCombs, Charles Strimater and Samuel McCleary.

George Chadwick was represented by Miss Mary Moore, Horatio Parker by Charles Strimater and Victor Herbert by William McCombs, Ethelbert Nevins by Miss Dorothy Sonneborn, Dudley Buck, by Mrs. Paul Weller.

Outstanding was the presentation for Edward MacDowell which was a two piano number featured by Mrs. D. Duff Scott and Mrs. Howard P. Meacham.

At the conclusion of the program a short chorus rehearsal was held. On March 12 in the First M. E. church Edwin Lewis, a well known young organist will present a concert with Mrs. J. L. Reed, hostess.

He will be assisted by Miss Ceinwen Johns, soprano artist. This will undoubtedly be Miss John's final appearance before leaving for Europe for an extended stay.

This concert will be open for the public and there will not be any charge.

SILVER WEDDING THURSDAY EVENING

Thursday, March 1, will mark the 25th anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Boy Newton of 1020 Adams street, and to celebrate the occasion, open house will be held at the home from 2 to 4 in the afternoon and from 7 to 9 in the evening. Informal plans for the day are being arranged by the couple's three children, Charles, Helen and Bill all of whom live in New Castle.

Deborah Class

The Deborah class of Third United Presbyterian church was hostess Monday evening to the members of the Ever Faithful class at the home of the teacher, Mrs. D. C. Bovard, Winslow avenue. The party was the result of a recent attendance contest between the two classes.

Caroline Lawton and Clara Eakin welcomed the guests after which they were led in a series of intriguing contests and games by Edythe Sherbine, Helen Book and Velma Wright.

In serving refreshments the hostess was assisted by Thelma Seams. The winning contestants reported a most delightful evening, when time came to go home.

Modernistic Club

Miss Nellie Brady was hostess to the Modernistic club Monday evening in her North Jefferson street home. Two tables were used for the bridge contests with Miss Lillian Richards winning the prize. Special guests were Misses Gertrude Harbert and Jane Leicht.

The next meeting will be in two weeks with Miss Laura Leicht of the Wright apartments, East Washington street.

D. D. D. Club

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Gallagher entertained the D. D. D. club at their home on East Washington street Saturday evening.

Hours were devoted to cards with prizes won by Mr. and Mrs. G. N. McAnallen. Lunch was served at a late hour.

The next meeting will be on March 10 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sandman on Brooklyn avenue.

Ministers Wives

Minister's wives will entertain their husbands at a chop suey dinner Friday evening at 6 o'clock in the home of Rev. and Mrs. F. E. Stough on Winter avenue.

Members of the C. S. Club will be entertained Thursday in the home of Mrs. Clarence Henderson at Castletwood.

Officers To Meet

The Officers of the Auxiliary to the Sons of Veterans will meet Friday at 1:30 in the City Building.

CIRCLE OF '23 HEARS TOPICS OF INTEREST

Mrs. Ira G. Boak of Winter avenue was hostess to the Current Events Class of '23 Monday afternoon.

Roll call was answered by giving current topics after which Mrs. H. E. Marshall Sr. gave an interesting article on "Criticism."

Mrs. Boak read a paper pertaining to institutions for the insane and this was followed by a general discussion of the subject.

Each member responded to the topic "Our Duty and Responsibility to Our City" which brought out many good suggestions.

Mrs. W. H. Shipley invited the entertainment committee to her home on Highland avenue last evening to meet with the committee from the Circle '91 to plan for the Federation luncheon which will be held on March 20 with these two clubs in charge.

On March 12 all members are asked to be present at the meeting in the home of Mrs. Edward Mayberry, 715 Blaine street.

OVERSEAS WOMEN JOIN CELEBRATION

Enjoying the first national reunion of the Women's Overseas League, a number of the members of the Lawrence County Unit assembled at the home of Mrs. S. H. Blads, Moody avenue, Monday afternoon for a "French tea" and to listen in to the broadcast of the national speakers.

Mrs. Edith Rodgers, Congresswoman from Massachusetts, Shirley Farr, dean of women of Northwestern University, Chicago and Faustine Dennis of the Congressional library in Washington, a. members of the league, spoke most interestingly and during the broadcast it was mentioned that a group had assembled in New Castle to listen in, and each member at the Rhoads home was thrilled at this.

A combination of iris, red and white carnations, carried out the patriotic colors in the table decorations.

Mrs. Pearl Cartwright of Ellwood City was an out of town guest.

Daughters Of Lydia

Mrs. R. G. Maxwell was a charming hostess Saturday afternoon to the members of the Daughters of Lydia of the First Presbyterian church, with Mrs. H. M. Kirk, Mrs. John Madigan, Mrs. Norman Martin and Mrs. Edwin Moore as her assistants.

Mrs. Kirk had the opening, followed by roll call, when each woman gave the details of how she earned the dollar for the society. Many humorous tales were heard.

Rose Brown, secretary of the Elm street branch of the Y. W. C. A. told most interestingly of her work among the colored people of New Castle and of what is being done for the advancement of the race in the United States.

Mrs. Norman Martin told of the work of David Livingstone in Africa. Refreshments were served.

Hadassah Meeting

This evening at 8 o'clock the members of Hadassah will meet in the Beth Shalom Center with the program one of celebration of Jewish Arbor day.

Aid-A-Gi Club

DINNER AND PROGRAM FOR MEN'S CLASSES

Even the extremely cold weather and the deep snow could not freeze the spirits or smother the enthusiasm of the members of the McKinney class of the First Presbyterian church and the Men's Bible class of the First Baptist church in their joint supper and entertainment Monday night in the social rooms of the First Presbyterian church. Dinner was served promptly at 6:30 by a committee headed by Mont L. Magill of the McKinney class.

After dinner the guests repaired to the Sunday School rooms, where a short testimony and praise service was held in charge of the teachers of the classes, William H. Butler of the McKinney class and Rev. C. L. Heaton of the Baptist Mens. Following this an entertainment program was given by the men of the Baptist class in the form of the District School, which was well enacted and humorous.

At the dinner meeting C. L. Sherer, president of the McKinney class presided and at the entertainment W. O. "Red" Williams, president of the Baptist class, was master of ceremonies. About 150 attended.

Especially entertaining was the musical skit by Griff Lewis and Al Candioto.

DINNER PARTY AT ANDREWS HOME

A dinner party this evening at six o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Andrews will interest members of the 1934 club.

Plans for the affair were made at the club session Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Owens of Garfield avenue.

The usual game of bridge was played with distinction won by Mrs. Harvey Cooper, Mrs. Arthur Kiefer, Charles C. Andrews and Harry Flinnier. Refreshments concluded the evening's entertainment.

On March 8, the regular club meeting will be held at the home of Sheriff and Mrs. Edward D. Prichard of Court street.

POSTPONE SEWING UNTIL NEXT WEEK

Women accustomed to meet at Jameson Memorial hospital Wednesday mornings to sew, are reminded that there will not be a meeting this week.

Next Wednesday, March, members of Hershey chapter of the First Presbyterian church will be present and they will have charge each week during the month.

St. Vitus Auxiliary
St. Vitus Auxiliary will hold its regular meeting tonight in the church hall at 8:00 o'clock. All members are urged to attend as a surprise is in store.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE—SAFETY!

A "MINUTE MAN" program for mobilizing the entire motor vehicle industry against traffic accidents has been announced by Registrar Morgan T. Ryan of the Massachusetts Motor Vehicle Department, and Chairman of the Safety Committee of the Eastern Conference of Motor Vehicle Administrators. Brief messages on safe driving will be broadcast through newspapers, magazines, radios and other agencies.

The program has been endorsed by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce. The motor and allied industries have pledged their support. They can help make safety a household word—better, a behind-the-wheel word—with millions of automobile drivers.

Stock casualty insurance companies have also supported the proposed program through the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters, which for many years has been prominent in traffic safety work. This organization has appointed John J. Hall, nationally known safety authority, to work with the Eastern Conference of Motor Vehicle Administrators in developing the technical and organization details of the campaign.

The motor men can be appealed to on a business as well as a humanitarian basis. The heavy annual toll of life, limb and property resulting from automobile accidents, cuts off income, builds up sales resistance, increases taxes and insurance rates and makes many persons hesitate before buying a new car.

Plans are afoot to launch the campaign before May 1. The motor vehicle industry has always believed in the old slogan, "It pays to advertise." Now it seems inclined to include "safety" in sales messages.

WOMEN

Now and then someone comments on the fact that when famous women of the year are chosen by various periodicals and organizations the group is always composed of women whose activities have not been confined to their homes. That special prominence seems reserved for women who have achieved success in some field which has little to do with bruised knees and jelly tarts and round red mouths that whisper children's funny little secrets.

Of course the natural answer is that women whose achievements are known to a larger group are the ones who are chosen. But the fact that this is true in no wise diminishes the work of those who make a home from a house of rooms and plant love and laughter and sympathy in children's hearts.

The very fact that the graciousness of homemaking is taken as a matter of course shows that the foundation of our Nation is built on solid rock. If such a trust were played up as something unusual there would be cause for danger. Story-hours at candle-lighting time, lullabies crooned with lips close-pressed against sleepy, curly heads, rhymed voices that chant the old Now-I-Lay-Me-Down-To-Sleep. . . these are cornerstones of American home life.

If it were an unusual thing for a woman to like the syrupy smell of boiling fruit that will make jam for her children's sandwiches, if it were strange for her to glory in the clean, crisp touch of white sheets, the cups and saucers that stand in bright rows in her cupboard—if women didn't love heartfires, then there would be cause for serious alarm.

It is only right and natural for some women to go into the world and toil. There are tasks for them to do. And many of them keep homes as well.

But the vast majority keep faith at hearthside. A woman's greatest pleasure consists now, as always, in telling the man she loves that it isn't his fault that he hasn't won the laurels that he deserves. . . and in telling a little boy, who looks like his father, that of course he will win them some day.

Those who are afraid that the modern woman—as women whose working hours are spent outside of their homes are sometimes called—has changed are doing much useless worrying. If the modern business woman were asked, and answered truthfully, it would be discovered that she is pretty closely related to her home-keeping sisters.

SHIP SUBSIDIES

President Roosevelt's position in favor of a direct ship subsidy by the government instead of extending such aid through the subterfuge of ocean mail contracts will appeal to those who believe that all public questions should be met frankly.

That some form of government assistance to American shipping lines is necessary if the latter are to be able to compete with foreign interests is evident. American companies pay wages far above those of their competitors. The United States merchant marine must disappear, reduce wages or receive financial help from the government.

National interests requires an adequate merchant marine. To reduce wages to a point where shipping lines would be able to meet their foreign competitors on an equal footing would cause a lowering of American standards of living. This would not be desirable.

The only other course is for the government to extend financial help. Mr. Roosevelt believes this should be done, and his views are in line with those of previous administrations, which, however, have granted such aid indirectly. Instead of being called a subsidy, it has taken the form of mail contracts. Payments in many cases were exorbitant as measured on a strictly service basis. The policy was a subterfuge and recognized generally as such.

Perhaps the chief reason for this was because the public had come to look upon "government subsidy" as something evil.

This is not necessarily true or the new deal would reek with odors. There scarcely is a line of private industry to which the government is not giving financial help, directly, or indirectly.

If there is to be a ship subsidy, let it be called that. Frankness is a virtue no less desirable in government than in private affairs. The question of a ship subsidy ought to be considered and decided on its merits as a subsidy.

THE KING OF PUZZLERS

An ever increasing army of puzzle solvers will mourn the death of Sam Loyd, who probably more than any other one man was responsible for the widespread puzzle vogue. For more than forty years the originator of "How Old Is Ann?" had been evolving brain twisters, turning out more than 10,000 of them. Long ago his name became a watchword like Dan Beard, "Honus" Wagner and "Pop" Warner among growing boys.

Sam Loyd was more than puzzle king. He was an industry and an institution.

Once Overs

By J. J. MUNDY

"HOLIER THAN THOU."
Perhaps you despise those who succumb to temptation put before them.

Do you consider yourself so strong that you could overcome it? How do you know?
Have you ever faced a powerful temptation—that is, one that might bring you great influence or considerable money?

If not, you don't know what your reaction might be if the offer were tantalizing enough.

Of course everyone has known times when temptation came in really important ways and was not hard to control.

Humanity is very much the same yet temptation for one is the reverse in the next one; and what is extolled as so great a virtue in one may denote merely lack of temptation in another.

Your idea of something which might create a desire in you to overstep moral bounds or which might tempt you financially may be beyond that of the majority of people who make mistakes.

But when you say that nothing could tempt you to do wrong, it may be an opinion arrived at because you never have been really tempted.

That "holier than thou" attitude is dangerously unsafe.

And few live up to it when a real test is met.

YEA-VERILY

Now that the Rothschild family is being portrayed by George Arliss and Company on the screen, the following story is appropos:

When a money lender complained to Baron Rothschild that he had lent 10,000 francs to a person who had gone off to Constantinople without leaving any acknowledgment of the debt, the baron said:

"Oh, I will write him and ask him to send you the 50,000 francs he owes you."

"But he owes me only ten," said the money lender.

"Precisely," rejoined the baron. "and he will write and tell you so, and thus you will get the acknowledgment of it."

AUTOMOBILE DEDUCTIONS

With the number of automobile owners registering in the millions, the question of deductions for the cost of operation and maintenance of a motor car frequently is addressed to the Bureau of Internal Revenue. The purchase price of an automobile, whether it is to be used for business or pleasure, cannot be deducted from gross income. If used for business, it is a capital expenditure; if used for pleasure, it is a personal expenditure—both deductions being expressly prohibited by the income-tax law.

However, there are several allowable deductions in connection with the cost of maintenance and operation of an automobile, used either for business or pleasure. If the car is used exclusively for business purposes, there may be deducted the entire cost of gasoline, oil, repairs, rent for garage, and other necessary expenses connected with operation and upkeep. Depreciation, based on the cost of the car and its estimated useful life, also is deductible.

Other deductible items are as follows: Sums paid during the taxable year for registration fees, drivers' licenses, personal property tax, and municipal taxes; interest on money borrowed for the purchase of a motor car, either for business or for pleasure; loss sustained by reason of damage while car is being used for business, provided such loss is not covered by insurance or otherwise; damages paid for injury to a pedestrian, provided that the car was being used for business at the time, and again provided said payment was not covered by insurance or otherwise; amount paid for insurance on motor vehicles used for business purposes.

"Can't I help you in any way?" asked the courteous motorist who had pulled up alongside. She was standing beside her roadster with a worried look on her face.

"It's the gasoline indicator," replied the dame. "It's past the halfway mark but for the life of me I can't remember whether its half full or half empty."

Just like that derivative of morphic—herone. Incidentally a lot of herones are heron to us.

Just as this rational did a great service to the world in proving the futility of rational prohibition, so, in my opinion, is Russia serving the world in proving the futility of communism.

Had we not had the example of Russia before us, I suspect that communism might have made some headway here and elsewhere during the depression. Today, however, the workers here seem to realize that badly as they have fared under capitalism they are better off than they would be under communism. Thousands of workers have gone to Russia as employees of American companies. They have returned with tales of misery and privation that have silenced the radicals.

The World At A Glance

Mountain Of Gold
A City Too Crowded
New York Firebrand

By LESLIE EICHEL

Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The total amount of gold that has reached New York since stabilization of the dollar amounts to approximately $450,000,000.

Resale by importers to the assay office at $35 an ounce means a large profit to the importers.

The New Deal's various changes mean sudden profits to many. The chief hope, of course, is to raise prices so that millions of producers will benefit.

CROWDED CITY

How crowded Washington has become, through the influx of persons necessary to carry on the various bureaus, may be judged by experiences of apartment hunters.

Says a man from New York: "I used to live in Washington. I went back to my old apartment house. But gone were the days of depression. I could have an inside apartment—which nobody else desired—or nothing."

CLANNISH

Another interesting story is told of Washington apartments: All the NRA-ers seem to live in one neighborhood.

And the same seems true of those of all other alphabet organizations.

BRIGHT LIGHTS

New York is a rapidly changing city these days, even with few new structures arising.

The swanky places are in and along Sixth, Seventh, Madison and Park avenues. (Broadway, of course is out of it.)

The swankiest night life hotel is at Madison and 58th street.

That once was one of the quaintest neighborhoods in the city.

With the coming, however, of swank so close to Park avenue apartments and de luxe hotels, real society is seeking more isolated spots—even more isolated than Sutton place, along the East river.

That means the transformation of more tenement areas.

The real estate operator in New York has to be as much of a speculator as an operator on the Stock Exchange.

LA GUARDIA
Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia is the firebrand of New York. The hidebound Republicans who supported him are rooting for him.

It was certain to be so. La Guardia is a fiery individual.

His fight for an economy bill over-the-les brings him powerful Republican backing.

His apparent siding with strikers against hotels is swinging to him the support of all degrees of workers.

The raids on the hotels by the mayor's health department and the subsequent statement by the mayor of "shocking conditions" started New Yorkers. Many persons began to have "pains in the stomach."

That's no exaggeration.

New York simply couldn't exist without its hotels. Literally every citizen and every visitor dotes on those hotels. It's a New York complex. When the strike has ended, the hotels are likely to be rushed.

Hotel managers, waiters and diners are likely to sing a roundelay.

Mayor La Guardia himself seems to enjoy the hotels. But he is for going at matters basically. And that means, in his opinion, that there should be no long, knock-down-and-drag-out fight between folk who happen to be employers and folk who happen to be workers—there ought to be a fair composition of differences.

That is the La Guardia theory. At times he seems hysterical when he sees what he believes to be injustices—but as the man who runs the elevator at our place says:

"That's better than keeping mum—and having nothing done."

The outstanding theory in La Guardia's administration is the tempering of the police night club. It seldom now is used on strikers' heads.

LINDBERGH MYSTERY
Two men who worked on the Lindbergh kidnapping case believe there will be no solution. Two years have passed since the fatal night—and there hasn't been a clue.

One of the men is a former U. S. department of justice agent. The other is a newspaper reporter.

They both believe that the clue was lost forever because of the restriction placed on sleuths in the very beginning.

FORGOTTEN HEROES—Archibald C. Everett, a New York broker whom stocks broke, he was so disgusted with civilization that he went as far away from it as he could, wound up in Ararat, one of the Gilbert Islands, married the native king's daughter, inherited the throne. Ambitious parents sought him as a husband for their daughter.

He married a dozen or two a month to oblige them. Acquired 300 wives in all, was made wealthy by their dowries, truly lived like a king.

A PROMISE KEPT TO BILL STOUT
Bill Stout has for years been air-minded; all over this country he's flown.

He's as safe and as careful as Lindbergh. He flies in a ship of his own.

And Bill has been at me to try it; has begged me to go for a trip. But whenever I travel, I've answered, it will be on a train or a ship.

I've promised when first I went flying it would be in a seat at his side.

In the plane he'd inspected and tested, with him for a pilot and guide.

I've pledged him that when I got ready to quit the good earth for the air.

I'd give him the first chance to take me and put my life into his care.

Well, last midnight or possibly later, I called on the phone for Bill Stout.

I said I was ready to try it; I asked him to get the ship out.

I climbed in the cabin beside him and told him to "give her the gun!"

And over the trees and the buildings we started to climb to the sun.

We zoomed and we zipped and cut dikes; we looped and did all of the tricks.

Which is proof to a sensible mortal that ice cream and lobster won't mix.

And as we were knocking down flag-staffs I woke with a terrible shout.

But at least I'd made good my promise; I'd had my first ride with Bill Stout.

Cause Of Plane Crash Unknown

Two Separate Investigations Fail To Uncover Cause For Airliner Crash In Utah

PLANE TRIED TO OUTFRIDE STORM

(International News Service)
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Feb. 27.—The cause of the plane crash that sent eight persons, seven men and a woman, to their death among the snowbound peaks of the Wasatch mountains, 20 miles east of here, remained unknown today, despite two separate investigations.

Company officials said the position of the ship indicated pilot Lloyd Anderson and co-pilot Danielson were trying desperately to climb out of the storm when their plane nosed into the side of the mountain.

No official word was forthcoming from the federal or air line investigators conducting the scrutiny, other than that unfavorable weather contributed to the cause of the accident.

Parent-Teacher Associations

WEST SIDE EVENT

One of the outstanding social functions given by the West Side Parent Teachers Association, took place recently in the West Side school, when this organization entertained a number of guests at a Silver Coffee. Those who attended numbered 200 or more persons.

Miss Nannie Mitchell, principal of the West Side school, was the chairman in charge of the program. Miss Sophronia Lauer was the chairman of the affair. She was assisted by an able group of teachers and members of the West Side P. T. A. Among the guests were several members of the Lawrence County P. T. A. and officials of Lawrence County.

Following an interesting program, the gathering was ushered to the first floor of the building where an appetizing luncheon was served. The program was as follows:

Selections—Mahoning orchestra.
Reading—Miss Pearl Hutchison.
Vocal solo—Miss Ruth Weir.
Violin solo—Vito Colella.
Piano solo—Miss Anna Patterson.
Candle-lighting ceremony in honor of Founders Day: Mrs. Chauncey Davis, Miss Olivia M. Griffiths, Miss Elsie Kline, Mrs. Paul B. Griffiths, Miss Jean Gibson, Mrs. Frank S. Hoover, Miss June Horton, Miss Beatrice Bruce and Mrs. Earl Sweesy.
Clarinet solo—Roger Pecano.
Selections—Mahoning orchestra.
Violin solo—Anthony Casbero.
Announcements—Mrs. Chauncey Davis.
Selections—Mahoning orchestra.

ASSOCIATION PLANS

At a recent meeting of the Arthur McGill Parent-Teacher association, a set of resolutions were drawn up and presented to the county association, which approved them.

The resolutions ask that steps be taken to make the Parent-Teacher association conscious of the present crisis in public education and to inform all parents of the necessity of protecting their children through supporting the public schools and to urge to district, state and national units to rally to the support of the public schools and that the editors of the "Child Welfare", national parent-teacher magazine, acquaint themselves with this crisis and rally to the support of the public schools by cooperating with the National Education association, and by publishing such articles as will awaken its readers to this crisis in education.

GIRL SCOUT LEADERS TO MEET WEDNESDAY

The Girl Scouts Leaders' Association of New Castle will have a regular monthly meeting on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in council chambers at the city building.

"Artcraft" will be the subject of study for the evening.

Each leader will bring two pieces of cardboard, some lightweight yarn and a large-eyed needle.

COAL MINER HAS SPINE FRACTURED

GROVE CITY, Feb. 27.—Grove City Hospital authorities report Wm. Pizer, 41 miner at the McCurdy Mine near Jackson Center in fair condition today. Pizer was brought to the institution following an accident in the mine when a coal car passed over his body fracturing the final column.

"Had better", "had best", "had rather", are entirely grammatical and fully approved by good usage. "Would better", "would best", and "would rather" are not preferable.

Senator Reed Makes Answer

Pinchot-Reed Battle For Senatorship Is On In Full Blast

By SYDNEY H. EIGES
International News Service Staff Correspondence

HARRISBURG, Feb. 27.—Inaugurated by an interchange of acrimonious blasts, the Pinchot-Reed senatorial battle was on in full swing today.

In the statement announcing his candidacy Gov. Gifford Pinchot labeled his opponent in the Republican primary, United States Senator David A. Reed, as the errand boy of the Mellons, the international bankers and the steel interests.

Last night, Senator Reed, terming the governor an "unscrupulous politician and a common scold" gave out the following reply:

"Governor Pinchot is again a candidate for the United States senate in spite of the decisive defeat that he received in 1914 and the pitiful showing that he made in 1926. As in both of these efforts, he now evidently intends to carry on against a campaign of vilification and personal abuse.

"He will try by that means to cover up his own record of broken promises, shameless abuse of his present office to build up a personal political machine, and his cynical use in secret of the methods that he denounces in public.

"Mr. Pinchot will not be nominated, Pennsylvania Republicans see in him nothing more than an unscrupulous politician and a common scold."

As if to presage that the coming senatorial campaign will be one of the most thrilling in Pennsylvania's recent history, the governor, not to be outdone by Senator Reed, issued the following terse reply from his bed in a New York sanatorium where he is recuperating from an attack of shingles:

"If that wasn't the bluster of a badly frightened man, then I never read any."

BOY SCOUT Activities

TROOP 4 HIKES
Troop 4 of the Boy Scouts assembled at their meeting place in Mahoningtown Saturday afternoon and went for a long hike, with a stop for cooking supper before their return.

The boys will meet again Friday, March 2, at 7 o'clock.

ATTEND CHURCH
Members of Troop 55, of the Trinity Episcopal church, attended services at the church in a body Sunday evening. Rev. Philip Pearson, pastor, delivered a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

Troop 55 is re-registering with several new members on their scout committee.

COMMITTEE MEETS
Members of the district commissioner's staff met last evening in the Boy Scout Council office and lined up their work for the coming season.

Troop visitations will be made by the following members of the staff: Sidney Smith—troops V1, 2, V10, and 12.

Harry Culliford—troops 3, V5, and V37.

Harvey Gwin—troops 4 and 8.

Walter DeArment—troops 6, 11 and V21.

Dr. T. F. McFate—troops 9, V13, and V15.

Elmer Tinsman—troops V17, V18, and 55.

BOARD TO MEET
A special meeting of the executive board, of the Lawrence county council, will be held Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the office of L. B. Round.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

INITIATE TWENTY
About twenty new Girl Reserves were recognized as members by the Senior high school club at a candle-lighting ceremony in the Y. W. C. A. Monday night. The ceremony was entered into by about fifty-five members. It was one of the prettiest conducted in several years, according to Miss Marian Wilson, Girl Reserve secretary.

Miss Janet Bechtel, the president, assisted by Miss Katie Dannels, the vice president, and with Miss Geraldine Ferver at the piano, were in charge. It was a combination recognition and installation service. The new cabinet officers were installed into their various offices.

SKATING PARTY
The True Blue circle will have a skating party this evening and members who have them have been asked to bring their skates.

MERRY MAIDS
A meeting of the Merry Maids is announced for this evening at 7:30.

Weekly Health Talk

"The rapid rise in the diseases of the heart, blood vessels and kidneys calls for personal co-operation in combating them. Unfortunately, they cannot be controlled by statutes or health regulations. Right living rules and the employment of the annual physical examination, with a consequent appreciation of danger signals, if discovered, must be depended upon as the real weapons against these insidious and powerful killers," states Dr. Theodore B. Appel, state secretary of health.

"High blood pressure, thickening of the arteries and traces of albumin are definite danger signals. None of these conditions are likely to be discovered without a professional examination. Hence the importance of the periodic check-up.

"To suggest rules for the avoidance of the so-called degenerative diseases is quite difficult. Generally speaking, however, a reasonable appreciation of moderation in all things, including eating, drinking, working and playing will be of decided advantage.

"Many of the chronic degenerative diseases of adult life can be traced to bacterial infection. This type of poisoning is usually diseased

Engage Trucks To Haul Snow

Snow In Business District Thoroughfares To Be Cleaned Away

Council met in adjourned session today at city hall and upon the recommendation of City Engineer Harry Hoskins passed a motion authorizing the city to employ not more than nine trucks in which to haul snow off streets in the business district. The city will pay truck owners at CWA rates. CWA employees will shovel the snow from the streets. The CWA administration at Harrisburg permits the city to borrow the employees but must pay for the trucks.

By removing the snow from the thoroughfares flood likelihood is lessened.

Morris Paving Assessment Cut

Council Acts Upon Assessors Recommendation Following Inquiry

Paving assessment against the Morris property, Winslow avenue, today was reduced from $129.21 to $23.74, upon the recommendation of assessors. Council took the action when they met in city hall today. Several days ago former Senator George Weingartner, representing the property owners pointed out that they had been assessed too much. An investigation followed with the foregoing results.

INFORMAL PARTY ON 69TH BIRTHDAY

Honoring the 69th birthday of Mrs. Susan Shaffer, which occurred February 23, a party was held in the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Shaffer at Gardner.

There were 36 present and an enjoyable evening was spent in an informal manner. Special guests were Mrs. Mary Shubert and three children, Laura, Milton and Paul. A handkerchief shower featured a pretty collection of these dainties.

Later a buffet lunch was served. Table decorations were attractive spring flowers which were a gift from a daughter, Mrs. George B. Morgan of McKeesport, who could not be present, and a large birthday cake which had been baked and decorated by Mrs. Roy W. Shaffer.

After partaking of many tempting viands, the ten grandchildren formed a circle and sang "Happy Birthday" to the honored guest.

Birthday Party
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Granato entertained in their home February 25, in honor of the eleventh birthday of their daughter, Rita.

Games, stunts and several prizes were enjoyed and prizes were awarded Phyllis Scungio and Josephine Pisula.

Those present were Jean Tommello, Anna Tommello, Viola Marsella, Lina Veandamia, Betty Tusciano, Millie and Gloria Augustine, Marie and Caroline Jubellis, Rose Pisula, Mary Barrett, Josephine Pisula, Dolores Blonda, Phyllis Scungio, Dorothy Bitale, Angelina Rozzi, Louise Pagely, Miss Nellie Brady was a special guest.

The honored one received a pretty collection of gifts. Serving dainty refreshments the aids were Mrs. Granato, Mrs. Rozzi, Mrs. Pagely, and Margaret De Stefano. Color tones were suggestive of St. Patrick's day.

World War Veterans Aid Is Voted Into Measure By Senate

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—A $55,000,000 liberalization of benefits for World War veterans was voted into the independent offices appropriation bill today by the Senate without a record vote.

The Stewer-Reed-McCarran amendment, restoring pre-economy disability rates and ratings, was adopted, while only a handful of senators were in the chamber. Administration leaders made no effort to force a record vote, since they were defeated yesterday 51 to 40 on the first point of the liberalization program.

After his arrest at St. Louis, Davis was questioned by Lieut. Charles Keller, of the State police, but denied any connection with the Brantlinger slaying.

When Davis was finally removed to Carlisle, a member of the State Highway patrol volunteered to act as his ciliate in an effort to trap him into a confession. The ruse was futile and the lie detector was finally brought into play, it was learned, to break down Davis' resistance.

Nine Dead In New York Area Due To Storm

Metropolitan New York Is Digging Out From Under 24-Hour Snowfall

TRANSPORTATION IS AT STANDSTILL

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—After a 24-hour snowfall Metropolitan New York awoke to find clear skies today, but prospects of an early abatement of the suffering and inconvenience caused by two of the worst blizzards in the city's history were not bright.
All of the major overland transportation lines were operation on curtail schedules and many outlying communities found themselves completely isolated. Coupled to this was the threat of a coal and fuel shortage.
At least nine persons were known to be dead in the greater city from causes attributable to the storm while at least a hundred more had suffered injuries in accidents.

Reorganize Stamp Club Here Monday

At a meeting held Monday evening in the Y. M. C. A., the New Castle Stamp Club, which functioned here some years ago, was re-organized.

Officers were chosen as follows: President, D. H. Hennon; secretary, H. D. Porter; treasurer, R. B. Coleman. The association will be composed entirely of adults for the present, although the formation of a junior chapter was discussed.

On request of Ralph F. Davis, a committee will be appointed to act in an advisory capacity for Boy Scout stamp collecting projects.

Fred Stamps spoke on rotary call U. S. stamps and exhibited some stamps used in the early stamp vending machines.

The next meeting will be held on Monday, March 12, which will be open to the public. President Hennon will talk on stamp collecting which will be of interest to the non-collector. Meetings will be held for the present on the second and fourth Mondays of each month. Affiliation with the American Stamp Association is being sought.

Industry Unable To Absorb All Of Unemployed Men

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Industry has showed no indication that it can employ the persons being dismissed from the CWA and "something must be done to find jobs for them," the American Federation of Labor stated today.

"We cannot hope to find work for even half the present unemployed unless we shorten hours," the federation added.

It is estimated 11,690,000 persons were seeking work in January. Of this number 4,600,000 had emergency work "while nearly 7,100,000 were without the means to earn bread."

New Federal Agency To Rule Communications Asked By President

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—President Roosevelt, in a special message to congress Monday, proposed the creation of a new federal agency to be known as the federal communications commission, which would assume regulatory authority over all types of interstate communication, including telephone, telegraph and radio.

Specifically, the president's plan would give the new agency the duties now performed by the federal radio commission, and also the regulatory powers which the interstate commerce commission now has over the telephone and telegraph companies.

The message, which was brief, pointed out that transportation is regulated by the ICC, and power transmission by the federal power commission.

Only in the field of communications, it stated, is there no single regulatory governmental agency.

Message Text.

The text of the message follows: "To the Congress:

"I have long felt that for the sake of clarity and effectiveness the relationship of the federal government to certain services known as utilities should be divided into three fields—transportation, power, and communications.

"The problems of transportation are vested in the interstate commerce commission, and problems of power, its development, transmission and distribution, in the federal power commission.

"In the field of communications, however, there is today no single government agency charged with broad authority.

"The congress has vested certain authority over certain forms of communication in the interstate commerce commission and there is in addition the agency known as the federal radio commission.

"I recommend that the congress create a new agency to be known as the federal communications commission, such agency to be vested with the authority now lying in the federal radio commission and with such authority over communications as now lies with the interstate commerce commission—the service affected to be all of those which rely on wires, cables or radio as a medium of transmission.

"It is my thought that a new commission such as I suggest might well be organized this year by transferring the present authority for the control of communications of the radio commission and the interstate commerce commission."

"The new body should, in addition, be given full power to investigate and study the business of existing companies and make recommendations to the congress for additional legislation at the next session.

Franklin D. Roosevelt."

Predict Plenty Of Fish For Anglers

Big Stock Of 2,000,000 To Be Planted In Different Rivers
Of State

(International News Service)
JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Feb. 27.—Pennsylvania in a few years will be a "fisherman's paradise" if the prediction of Fish Commissioner G. M. Deibler means anything.

In an address before the Johnstown sportsmen's association, commissioner Deibler described plans for planting 2,000,000 fingerling brook and brown trout in the "forgotten streams" of the state.

Deibler explained that planting of the fingerlings will not be done at any sacrifice of larger, legal-size fish. There will be more legal fish in the streams this year than ever before, he said.

About the first of May, the fingerlings will be transported to sportsmen in various sections of the state who will then plant them in their favorite streams. The state requires only that a list of streams sportsmen desire to stock be submitted in advance.

On Court House Hill

Forty-three instruments of all kinds were recorded at the office of Register and Recorder William R. Hanna last week. They included 23 deeds and 16 mortgages. In the week previous 27 instruments were recorded, including 9 deeds and 13 mortgages. The total amount of the mortgages recorded was $31,394, as against $36,798 during the previous week. The week was notable for the large number of home owners loan corporation mortgages, there being 12 mortgages to the corporation, totaling $24,994. Two mortgages to the land bank commissioner, totaled $5,600, two to trust companies, totaling $3,300 and two to individuals, totaling $7,500.

Deputy Sheriff Elmer P. Taylor, who spent Sunday in Franklin, Pa., says that the ice on the river at that place is 20 inches thick. "This is the thickest known for many years. Residents are becoming alarmed over what it is likely to do, if it should go off with a sudden thaw. Precautions are being taken to prevent gorges, if possible. Taylor says there is much more snow up in that section than here.

Mr. McElwee, who is a member of the legislature from the second district of Lawrence county, gave an outline of work done in the general assembly at the last session and also at the recent special session. The program was sponsored by the Council of Republican women, under the direction of Mrs. R. J. Bollman.

Returns of the recent special election in Ellwood City were counted by the return judges at court yesterday. There were two propositions voted on. One was, "Shall the bonded indebtedness be increased to the amount of $102,000 for a municipal building?" This proposition was lost by a vote of 861 to 321, according to the official count. The other proposition was, "Shall $25,000 worth of bonds be issued for a municipal rence county told of a copper mine, and exhibited specimens which they claimed had been taken from it. In 1770 when Senseman and Zeisberger missionaries of the Moravian faith, established a mission at what is now Moravia, the occasional white man who visited that section is said to have been told of a copper mine. Curious as they might be no hint as to the location was ever given them. Historians believe that the secret perished with King Beaver, said to have been head of Indian tribes in this section.

City of New Castle will have to pay about $22,000 for sites on which the approaches to the "Lincoln" viaduct will set, it was learned today. The city has options on properties at Lincoln avenue and Crawford Terrace in the second ward and will condemn properties in Croton avenue, opposite Crawford avenue, in the third ward. Land in the Croton avenue section not needed for the approaches will be designated as park land.

It never rains unless it pours. Frinstance, several weeks ago the two small sons of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Guerriero, 801 Court street, while sledding received what almost proved fatal injuries. Due to her lack of memory she saved a certain colored gentleman from several months in jail. She told the mayor she met up with a knife wielding gentleman in Lawrence street and when she sounded his attentions, he made a three-inch incision in her hip. She was sent to a hospital, treated, then returned to jail as police wanted to ask her who wielded the knife. She said she didn't know his name but said he came here from Youngstown. "You're not fooling me. You don't want to tell. Discharged," said the mayor.

Time and again city officials have declared that they are not connected in any way whatsoever with the employment of CWA workers. However, one of them has a way of getting them off the CWA list. He is Mayor Mayne. Several times he has been told of some persons using their money for intoxicants rather than taking it home. He has threatened to jail them which will mean they go off the CWA list. He has also threatened that any person who trades food obtained through relief for liquor will find his relief cut off.

Opinion expressed not once but several times by W. T. Burns while he was the finance director of the city that the 1922 ordinance providing pensions for police and firemen was unconditional has been borne out by a statement by Solicitor Robert White. Indications are that city council will repeal this ordinance and make arrangements for a pension fund, operative in 1935. An ordinance passed some time ago has resulted in pensions for firemen. No doubt the police will agree among themselves which should help their campaign.

The deluge of snow found one willing worker—Harry Hoskins, the city engineer who has been punching Streets Director B. F. Butler who is ill. Hoskins had ashes hauled here and there yesterday. He did not stop to ask a lot of questions when a doctor telephoned that ashes were needed on hills leading to homes where there was illness or where coal had to be delivered.

FEAR WEATHER CHANGE MAY BRING FLOODS

General Rain Is Now Feared

Only Slowly Melting Snow Condition Will Avert Floods

FROZEN GROUND ADDS TO DANGER

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 27.—Flood waters, with its accompanying toll of tragedy and property damage, may sweep into the Allegheny, Monongahela and Ohio river valleys, W. B. Brotzman, meteorologist in charge of the Pittsburgh weather bureau, warned today.

If a general rain fall of an inch in depth should visit the district, both the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers would be turned into raging torrents, he said, because of the thick ice and snow which has choked and blanketed the area.

Snow averaging eight inches today covered the river basins of the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers as well as the Ohio. This has greatly increased the flood possibilities. The two tributaries of the Ohio are locked with ice that ranges from an inch in thickness in the Pittsburgh district to 15 inches and more in the upper Allegheny river and eight or more in the Monongahela.

A few days of warm weather that would melt the snow and ice slowly enough to permit the streams to carry off the excess water below flood stages is apparently the only thing that will save the districts from high water conditions. A general heavy rain, Brotzman said, would be "just too bad."

Brotzman added that the flood danger is increased by the unusual depth to which the ground is frozen. Locally, it is solid to about a foot in depth. In the Upper Allegheny river districts, the ground is frozen to depths of three feet. The weather man said the ground under such conditions would shed water like city streets. During warm weather and when the ground is in an unfrozen condition, the ground acts somewhat like a sponge which makes it a natural flood control factor.

Big Water Tank Prey To Flames

Not even water tanks are immune from fire this weather at least in Hillsville. A 30,000 gallon water tank of the Johnson Limestone Company was destroyed Monday, when fire ate away the understructure of the tank, and let the tank itself down. The tank was destroyed. The fire originated in a sawdust bed at the base of the tank where intake pipes were laid. Workmen thawing out the pipes with torches are believed to have set fire to the sawdust and this smoldered for several hours. About nine o'clock in the morning the fire caught the ladders and understructure and fanned by a stiff wind soon became unmanageable.

A group of employees with extinguishers endeavored to extinguish the fire but were unsuccessful.

The firemen prepared a spaghetti dinner, to prove to the women that they can cook as well as fight fires, and their efforts were roundly praised by the group.

All Of State PWA Boards Will Cease To Exist After Wednesday

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Feb. 27.—The final meeting of the Pennsylvania PWA Advisory board will be held here tomorrow to dispose of pending applications, it was announced today. All state PWA boards cease to exist after tomorrow.

City Worried Over $150,000

City To Ask PWA What Has Happened To Request For Aid Money

Council met today in the city building and upon the recommendation of Engineer Hoskins authorized the city clerk in behalf of council to communicate with the Public Works administration in an effort to find out what became of the city's application for $150,000, with which it planned to improve thoroughfares and extend sewers. Thirty percent would be a grant.

This action was taken in view of Hoskins statement that New Castle's application was one of the first and according to officials at that time favored by the state board in charge of the PWA.

The county of Lawrence, it was reported, had not been so prompt in making an application for the Lincoln Avenue-Croton Avenue viaduct funds but that it had been approved before New Castle's request.

MILK BOTTLES CLUE TO WOMAN, PARALYZED

(International News Service)
BRAINTREE, Mass., Feb. 27.—Accumulated milk bottles and newspapers led to the discovery of Mrs. Helena Kopp, 87, who lay on the floor of a room in her home for three days after suffering a stroke of paralysis from shock. Neighbors telephoned police, who broke into the house and found Mrs. Kopp conscious but weak from hunger, thirst and cold. The furnace had gone out.

Rotary's Cabaret Party Crowned With Success

Not for many months has a Rotary club Ladies' Night achieved such success as did the merry cabaret party the clubmen held for their wives and lady friends in The Castleton ballroom last night.

And not for years have the Rotarians and the Rotary Annex ever held an affair similar to last night's, the social committee in charge planned well for the occasion, and, if records count for much, they'll probably get the call to plan a good many more events like it.

It was at 8 o'clock that the group of nearly 70 assembled in The Castleton lobby and drew partners for the evening of fun, each, the man and the woman, received badges to identify them, and all the women, obeying Rotary's rules, penned their first names on their cards.

Until 8:30 the selection continued while an orchestra played. At that time Frances E. Sowersby, who served in the toastmasters role all evening, called things to order and announced the presentation of an interesting one-act play, entitled "The Pipers Play," which was given by a cast of seven from the North Street Night School dramatic class.

Playing the roles were: Mrs. John Burton, the character—Harriet Smith, the performer—Mrs. Charles Dover—Florence Groden.

Mrs. Hedeford-Carr—Frances Cope. Mrs. Freda Dixon—Virginia Armstrong.

Mary Clark—Agnes Selleck. Evelyn Evans—Marion Wilkison. Nora—Iva Lord.

After the play the group, seated at tables which lined the ballroom wall, enjoyed a group of vocal solos sung by Mrs. C. W. Van Nort, Mrs. W. J. Caldwell and Mrs. Stanley Reese. At this time feature toe and tap dances were also given by Miss Eva Brown, talented dancing artist of the city.

While round and square dancing kept the guests entertained for the remainder of the evening or until the delicious buffet lunch was served at 11, the group also enjoyed the delicacy of a crate of Florida oranges shipped north by Rotarian Fred L. Rentz, now vacationing in the south. Some of the group played cards while the rest danced.

At a pause in the program the guests of each table addressed special cards to Mr. Rentz, expressing their thanks for his gift of juicy Tangerines. Secretary Carl E. Paisley was to mail them south today.

The lunch was served buffet style at 11. The orchestra played as the group dined.

Heading the social committee of the club is Albert B. Street, with Frank J. McLaughlin and Frances E. Sowersby as aids. To the three can go most all of the credit for the snappy evening's program.

Cold weather interrupted the plans of a few of the Rotarians who expected to attend.

Airplane Pilot Killed In Leap Onto Frozen Lake

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 27.—The unfavorable winter weather which has dogged flyers for the past 15 days today had claimed the life of another airplane pilot.

Second Lt. Albert D. Harmon, of the Michigan National guard, was killed when he jumped from his plane which crashed into the ice on Lake Erie, 700 feet off the shore from Sheffield Lake Village, near here.

His parachute failed to open fully because he was at a too low an altitude when he "bailed out."

FINDS DAUGHTER BELIEVED DEAD THIRTY YEARS

(International News Service)
CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 27.—Louis O'Connor, a church custodian here, has learned that the daughter he mourned as a victim of the Iroquois fire disaster in Chicago 30 years ago is alive and well, a nun in a Catholic order in New York.

The O'Connor family was griet-stricken when news came that the theater had burned down during a Christmas matinee for a group of school children. His six-year-old daughter Catherine O'Connor had been taken to the performance by her teacher.

O'Connor thought the charred remains of one of the 602 victims in the tragedy was the body of his daughter, so funeral services were conducted and the child was buried.

Hold-up Occurs On Moravia St.

Lone Bandit Robs Store But Gets Only Small Sum

Moravia street this morning was the scene of another robbery but instead of a lone bandit escaping with a big sum of money as on other occasions all he got was about $5.00, from the cash register at the Jacob Aronson store. However, Mrs. Aronson and her son, Max, were tied up with adhesive tape after the bandit pointed a revolver at Max. The burglar escaped police. The furnishings store is at 911 Moravia street.

According to police reports the lone bandit entered the store before 11 a. m. where Max Aronson was on duty.

He pointed a gun at the young man and seeing the mother the burglar forced them both into a rear room.

Their hands were tied with adhesive tape after which the bandit rifled the cash register. All he found was about $5.00.

After he fled, mother and son worked free of the adhesive tape and the alarm was spread. The bandit was white and about 20 years old, according to a description given to the police.

"All that I am I owe to my mother," says the great man. Old Dad gets no credit; he merely paid the bills.

Bennett Leads Titan Scorers, Douglass Next

Westminster Center Has 322 Points In 22 Games This Season

Douglass Has 178 Points; Sweeney Is Third With 138

Union Enjoys Good Season

Sixteen Victories In Nineteen Starts Is Record So Far

PILES UP TOTAL OF 622 POINTS

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Feb. 27.—West Bennett, Akron, O., sophomore, is leading the Westminster College basketball team in scoring. In 22 out of the 23 games played, Bennett has tallied 113 field goals and 96 fouls for a total of 322 points. The Titans have already played 23 games, winning 19 of the contests and dropping games to Pitt, Duquesne, City College of New York, and St. Thomas. Bennett has played in all but one of the games. Captain Bill Douglass, Iselin, is second in scoring with 71 field goals and 36 fouls for 178 points in 23 contests. Bennett has averaged 14.6 points per game, and Douglass has averaged 7.7 points per contest. The individual records:

| Player       | G. | Fg. | F. | Ts. |
|--------------|----|-----|----|-----|
| Bennett, c.  | 22 | 113 | 96 | 322 |
| Douglass, f. | 23 | 71  | 36 | 178 |
| Sweeney, f.  | 20 | 52  | 34 | 138 |
| Laybrook, f. | 23 | 40  | 26 | 106 |
| Hunneke, g.  | 23 | 34  | 13 | 81  |
| Wilhelm, g.  | 23 | 18  | 28 | 64  |
| Willits, f.  | 16 | 13  | 10 | 36  |
| Franklin, c. | 9  | 4   | 0  | 8   |
| Melder, g.   | 15 | 3   | 2  | 6   |
| Williams, c. | 13 | 2   | 0  | 4   |

The Titans have scored 976 points in 23 contests to average 42.4 per game. Opponents have tallied 575 points in 23 games to average 25 points per contest. Three games remain on the schedule this year. All of these are Tri-State Conference contests, and all three will be harder than they look. Geneva, Thiel and Grove City are the three remaining opponents, and while all three have been defeated already this season, the Titans look for much harder games when they meet these teams in the second contests. Geneva will be played at Beaver Falls on Thursday night, Thiel at New Wilmington on Friday night and Grove City at New Wilmington on Wednesday, March 7. Of the three games, the Geneva will be the hardest, but the other two, especially the contest with Thiel on the night following the hard Geneva game, will also be difficult. The fact that two of the contests are on the home floor should aid the tiring Titans.

Emlenton Five Is Scheduled By New Wilmington

Thursday evening at the Community House floor in New Wilmington, the Emlenton Merchants basketball team will furnish the opposition for the New Wilmington A. A. team for the first time in many weeks. The revived New Wilmington A. A. team will be composed of Hutchison, Patterson, Eagleson, Sharp, Davis and Gilliland.

JONES TO REFEREE
Charles "Bub" Jones has been secured to referee the Union-East Brook High County league game tonight at the Union High floor. It was announced by Coach Davey Boyd today. Coach Boyd will use his regular starting lineup.

Even the shirtwaist dress made of the silk refuses to be strictly tailored this season. It has ruffles, pleats or frills to soften it.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Residents Of Ward
Recall Good Turns
Wallace Volunteered

Yesterday's Heavy Snowfall
Brings Reminder Of Days
Of Wallace Snowplow

"By George, it on days like this that we miss our old friend Lou Wallace."

This thought, which doubtless had been in the minds of many Mahoningtowners who remember back a few years to the days when the Wallace brothers had their planing mill out Cherry street way, was voiced by William Weitz, I. D. Wagner and Capt. F. F. Gortley at the local fire department yesterday.

M. Louis Wallace, now of Highland avenue, (brother of Frank, local funeral director), made it a practice in those days to hitch his horse to a husky home-made snow plow and make an early morning trip over the principal streets of Mahoningtown after a heavy snow fall. At places he would steer the plows upon the sidewalks.

Lou's Good Samaritan act was much appreciated by the local residents—and remembered.

Zero Weather Is Interfering With Work Project Here

The zero weather of the past several days has held up operations on the CWA project at the Mt. Jackson and Moravia highway intersection, at the end of Montgomery avenue. The job has been furnishing employment for about 36 men for the past several weeks, some of whom have been working on the H. G. Coates property loading fill onto trucks, and others unloading the fill at the site of the project.

Regna Reported As Doing Nicely Today

Luigi Regna, of 207 West Madison avenue, who received serious injuries at the B. and O. roundhouse Saturday that necessitated the amputation of his right arm, was reported at 10:00 a. m. today as doing "nicely" at the New Castle hospital. He has been holding his own and at no time has he shown any signs of having a set-back in condition.

SCOUTS HAVE HIKE

The Mahoningtown Boy Scout troop enjoyed a winter hike on Saturday. Ten in number, the scouts strapped to the J. P. Walters place and vicinity, had a hearty luncheon, a good time, and then returned to their homes.

OHIO MAN INJURED

A severe laceration of the leg was received by a man named DeCarbo, of Youngstown, O., Monday afternoon, when the machine which he was driving skidded on the Mount Jackson hill and careened into a ditch. He was able to continue on his way to New Castle after the injury was dressed.

INVOLVED IN ACCIDENT.

Mrs. Edgar Mathewson, of Omaha, Neb., who visited in seventh ward last Friday, was in an automobile accident near Harrisburg on Sunday, according to message received by local friends, but was uninjured. The car which she was riding skidded off the road and hit a culvert. As the car was not being operated at a high rate of speed Mrs. Mathewson escaped with scratches, and after automobile repairs was able to continue on toward New York City where she will visit her sister.

Mrs. Mathewson is a former New Castle resident.

OPPORTUNITY CIRCLE

Mrs. R. M. Hamilton, of West Madison avenue, will receive members of the Opportunity Circle of the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church at her home on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. M. L. Wallace will lead the devotionals. Mrs. A. A. Maud and Mrs. Gertrude Marshall will be in charge of the topic, "The Foreigners in America." Final arrangements will be made for the supper which is to be an event of the afternoon will be Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. W. F. McClurg.

Jonkers Diamond, Fourth Largest In World Delivered With out Any Special Guards

(International News Service)
LONDON, Feb. 27.—It might have been a diamond ring, a necklace, or almost anything valued up to a few thousand dollars that was contained in a small package of registered mail delivered in Charter House street by a postman on his regular rounds.

Today, however, this postman was more than a little surprised to learn he had delivered, to the Diamond Corporation, Ltd., without any guards or special precautions, the Jonkers Diamond, fourth largest in the world.

Its value was a mere 75,000 pounds (about $375,000).

Final Plans For
St. David's Day

Welsh Men And Women Of City Will Have Tea And
Concert March 6

By WILLIAM A. JOHNS
Brython

A meeting of the Star of Wales Lodge No. 60 True Ivories of America was conducted last Saturday evening, February 24, when the final touches were given to the arrangements for the St. David's Day celebration which will be an event of Tuesday evening, March 6 at the Congregational church. All Ivorie members will attend and there will be no charge. The tea party and concert will be interesting features. Members of the Star of Wales will meet with the Martha Lodge at 7:30 o'clock.

Word has come from Warren, O., that the committee of arrangements of the Warren eisteddfod has arranged to hold the eisteddfod this year for two days, Friday and Saturday, May 11 and 12. Most of Friday will be devoted to the children and Saturday to the adults.

Mrs. Mary Stritmatter is arranging to return to New Castle from Cleveland where she has been taking treatment at one of the Cleveland hospitals for two or three months.

Griffith Thomas of Park avenue occupied the pulpit of the Emmanuel Baptist church last Sunday evening and delivered a splendid sermon to a large gathering of people. Mrs. William Bluedorn of New Castle rendered a very sweet soprano solo. Miss Eileen Jones was at the piano.

Word has come from Morristown, South Wales, that the Baptist church where Brython served as a deacon for many years, is arranging to celebrate its one hundredth birthday next April. Brython has a warm invitation to come back and enjoy the noted event, but being in the United States has had to decline. Others at New Castle used to be members of the church: William Phillips, of East Reynolds street, Mrs. Benjamin Jones, Reynolds St. Griffith Phillips, Lyndal street and others.

The Castleton Quartet, composed of George Anthony, Harry Evans, Arthur Thomas and Prof. R. E. Johns and the pianist, Mr. Sypher, has just returned from Rochester, Pa., where the members gave a splendid concert to a crowded house.

The Willing Workers class of the Emmanuel Baptist church Sunday School will meet next Thursday evening March 1, at the home of Mrs. S. W. Lewis, Long avenue.

Next Sunday evening, March 4, the two lodges of the Ivories Order, the Star of Wales and Martha, will meet as one body in the Divine Service in remembrance of St. David, at the First Congregational church. Rev. Williams, the pastor, will speak on St. David and also on the chief principles of the Ivorie Order. All members will meet at the church at 7:15 p. m.

Calendar Dates
Set For College

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Feb. 27.—The faculty at Westminster College has passed upon the calendar for the years 1934-1935. Professor Ben Ewema, editor of the annual catalog, announces. The calendar follows closely that of previous years with the exception of the spring recess, which is two days shorter. College will open, for matriculation of freshmen, on Monday, September 10. Classes start on Friday, September 14, and the opening chapel assembly is to be held Thursday, September 13. The Thanksgiving recess will start Wednesday, November 28, and will extend until Monday, December 3. The Christmas recess will start Thursday, December 20, and will end Wednesday, January 2, 1935. Commencement next year will be on Monday, June 10.

Dr. R. H. Martin
Reviews His Book

Ministers And Laymen Hear
Pittsburgh Divine Discourse
His Book On The Sabbath

Dr. R. H. Martin of Pittsburgh was the speaker at the Monday morning meeting of the Ministerial association at the First Presbyterian church. A number of laymen and women were present from the churches. Dr. Martin spoke on the subject of his recent book entitled "The Day." He traced the influence of Sabbath observance "or good in our national life. "We Americans," he said, owe a profound debt of obligation to the Christian Sabbath. We would never cease to thank God that those of our forefathers who had most to do with shaping our civilization and determining our national character believed profoundly in the holy Sabbath Day.

The speaker declared himself greatly alarmed over the tendency in our day to break our early customs and to desecrate God's Holy day. Among the factors which are to work for the destruction of the Christian Sabbath, the change in our mode of living due to the auto and the radio, the feverish drive of the commercialized interests, our love of pleasure and the failure of the church to do anything effective about it. He said that we must now do something about it or our Christian civilization is doomed. We must face the issue. "One day in 7 is given us in which to build character. If we lose that, then we are to be pitied indeed."

A New Yorker arrested for begging food died of starvation next morning. It is rumored that gangsters will be arrested, also.

Correct this sentence: "We knew one another so well," said she, "that marriage brought no surprises."

Three New Castle Boys Picked Upon All-Section Three

Reiber, Kelly And Kominic Selected By News Sports Writer For First Team

Fields And Capo Of New Brighton Complete First Team; Very Few Shining Stars

By C. P. WALTHER
News Sports Writer
Three New Castle high school section Three players are on my selection for the All-Star Sectional quintet. Captain "Bus" Reiber, Joe Kelly and Walter Kominic are the choices. The other two places on the first team go to Jim Fields of New Brighton and Capo of New Brighton.

Having witnessed all of the games in which New Castle took part this past season, I feel that these sections are the best possible out of the field of four other teams in the league. Beaver Falls, New Brighton, Butler and Ellwood City.

Reiber Is Best
Without fear of contradiction, I say that Reiber was perhaps the only standout of the entire season. In almost every game in which he played he scored nine or ten points. He was used as a guard at the start of the season, but at the semester switched over to a forward job. He is equally capable at both spots. Joe Kelly is another great performer, a valuable man on account of his height and a fine floor worker. There is perhaps no more aggressive player on the New Castle team, or in the whole league than Big Joe. Kelly also developed into an uncanny shot.

Walter Kominic is one of the greatest guards in the league. Aggressive and fast he held his opponents down to very few baskets this year. Kominic can also score points when they are needed, and along with Capo of New Brighton, is given the choice. Capo is without a peer in the league at the passing game. He is also a clever floor worker.

Many Fine Players
Fields is the big New Brighton forward who also defeated New Castle at New Brighton the beginning of the season. He is a deadly shot and a good floor worker. Next to Reiber, Fields is perhaps the classiest forward in the league. Shuber of Butler and Ray Carnelly of Beaver Falls are the forwards on the second team, and both are valuable men. Kradel of Butler for his sterling play against New Castle in two games is given the center job on the second team.

The two guards on the second team are Moulter of New Brighton and Bunney of Ellwood City.

Following are the two teams I have picked as the outstanding players in the Section Three league:

Reiber, New Castle, forward
Fields, New Brighton, forward
Kelly, New Castle, center
Kominic, New Castle, guard
Capo, New Brighton, guard

Second Team
Shuber, Butler, forward
R. Carnelly, Beaver Falls, forward

Kradel, Butler, center
Moulter, New Brighton, guard
Bunney, Ellwood City, guard

Honorable Mention
Robuck, Ellwood City, forward
Ostrosky, New Castle, guard
Olzak, Beaver Falls, guard
Webster, Butler, guard
Hitchens, New Castle, forward
Keppen, New Brighton, center
Tammare, New Brighton, center
Ridley, New Castle, forward
Battley, New Castle, forward
Vukich, New Brighton, forward

Fans Here Like Atkinson's Style

Aggressive Will Attract Fans When Ray Battles Eddie Douglas

ROBINSON BOXED IN HUMBERT HALL

Ray Atkinson, popular Ellport slugger hopes to defeat Eddie Douglas, colored 147 pounder of Youngstown when they battle in a five round bout Friday night at Humbert hall. Whether or not he does remains to be seen. Atkinson fought Tony Adamo and Custy Morini here and while it is true that he dropped the decision to Morini the fact remains that his aggressive style appeals to fans.

Another bout on the pugilistic calendar will find Joey Evans, Ellport's bantamweight, clashing with Wallace Cappel of Youngstown in the next to last bout. They will go five rounds unless one or the other is "clipped" before the bout goes the limit. In five round battles the rounds are limited to two minutes each.

Johnny Rodgers of Youngstown will go against Tony Adamo of New Castle in a three round welterweight bout. For a time Tony appeared as though he would go places in the amateur ranks. He won his last bout on a foul. Jimmy Patton, a former local fighter will oppose Kid Sal of Farrell at 126 pounds. Other bouts carded are: Pete Boy, Ellwood City vs Johnny Vargo, Youngstown at 150 pounds and Ray Gray, New Castle vs Alex Lawn, Ellport at 140 pounds.

It has been 20 years approximately since similar conditions that prevailed last night found Yankee Gilbert of Cleveland, protege of Johnny Kilbane battling Billy Bevan of Wilkes-Barre at Humbert hall. A blizzard swept through the city the day of the fight and at night the thermometer flirted with zero. Few fans attended the fight. Gilbert drifted out of the pugilistic picture shortly afterward but Bevan continued along the trail and several years later fought Patsy Brannigan at Wilkes-Barre.

Fans who watched Red Robinson referee the last bout at Humbert hall recall that it was in the same ring he had one of his hardest fights and when Robinson was here the last time we mentioned the fact. "That's right. This is the place and I well recall the fight" he said. It was a gruelling 10-rounder with Battling Terry.

Talking about Humbert hall, Patsy Brannigan and Johnny Ray fought here. Samuel Trot and Battling Terry battered each other until Trot was knocked out. Tommy Jones and Terry also had their mix-up and Young Buffalo had his baptism against Jack Hopper. Tony Ross and Dan Dailey boxed there, likewise some of the lesser lights a score years ago.

Purdue Wins Big Ten Title

For Third Time In Five Years Purdue Captures Big Ten Floor Championship

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—For the third time in five years Purdue University today held an undisputed western conference basketball championship, a decisive 37 to 25 victory over Wisconsin having clinched the title for the basketballers.

Outcome of the two games still to be played on the Purdue schedule, one with Indiana and one with Illinois, will have no bearing on the basketball hold on first place.

Northwestern defeated Michigan last night, 29 to 25, to edge Wisconsin out of second place. Indiana closed its home schedule with a 39 to 30 victory over the University of Chicago. Illinois came out on top, 35 to 31, in a fiercely contested Big Ten battle with Iowa on the Illinois home floor at Urbana.

AMBRIDGE HIGH LOSES
Ambridge High school basketball team in order to get used to the Beaver Falls high floor where they are hoping to play New Castle High later in the season, lost to the Geneva College Reserves last night 19 to 18 in a preliminary game to the Geneva-Grove City College game.

Loughran May Beat Carnera And Get Title

Tommy Impressive In Work-outs; Fight Wednesday Night

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 27.—Wishing to be advised of all the latest developments in this opera comique they seem to be running here between Primo Carnera, the not-so-good big man, and Thomas J. Loughran, the not-so-bad little man, for the heavyweight championship tomorrow night, I started off this morning with an interview with Louis K. McReynolds, chairman of the boxing commission.

He said that his referee would be instructed to inflict severe penalties for all fouls committed, the boys having begun to mutter darkly about Carnera's tendency to tread firmly upon the foot of anybody he doesn't happen to like. I think we can assume that he will not happen to like Mr. Loughran tomorrow evening.

Shea As Referee
We can also assume that Mr. McReynolds has never been fouled. Otherwise, he might be expected to know that the penalty is as severe as a broken foot. So much for development No. 1.

Number two has to do with the officials. They have no secrets here; everything is as open as a side door. So the referee, Leo Shea, was named four days ago and the two judges yesterday. With the result that all now are marked men and that all now are except in broad daylight up and down the middle of Flagler street. I mean they have all the privacy of a push cart peddler.

I don't suppose this greatly matters, for it's my belief that Carnera will be his own referee tomorrow night. His staff of managers has done all it could to make him lose but seems to have failed signally, for until such time as he proves you wrong, you have to like the big, strong, fast man against the little, weak blocker and grabber.

Loughran About Through
If Loughran, in the twilight of a never-to-dazzling career, can win this one, then there will be nothing for it but to tear up the record book and carefully cut the pieces. This is an opinion, not a development, but just for the records it can go as No. 3.

Four concerns itself with an official announcement by the management who are the promoters, people who are supposed to be on their way into the fight. This statement seems to recall the story of the college correspondent who wrote that all roads led to the stadium but forgot to say that there was nobody on them. Anyhow, no roads have been leading to the box office so far, with the result that Carnera may wind up fighting for haircut money and Loughran for sheer pleasure.

Golfers To Have Party Wednesday

One of the last in the series of parties, which have been held during the winter by the golfers of the city, will take place Wednesday evening, with the Pennsylvania Power Company team as hosts.

A good program is being arranged for the occasion and a large attendance is anticipated. With the golf season rapidly drawing nigh, the golfers will make the most of the party this week and the few which still remain on the schedule.

Cigars seem more expensive until you think how few people have the nerve to say: "Got a cigar?"

beavers may be taken during the season.

All traps must bear a metal tag containing in plain English the name and address of the owner.

Any beavers taken in excess of the season limit must be delivered to a salaried Game Protector within 24 hours after such capture.

No special license or permit is needed to trap beavers other than a resident hunter's license.

Landowners and members of their families may trap beavers only on lands upon which they actually reside without a license. If they desire to trap on adjoining property or on any other lands they must secure a license.

Boys between fourteen and sixteen years of age may trap beavers on lands upon which they reside without a license, but must secure a license to trap elsewhere.

It is unlawful to disturb or destroy beaver dams or houses.

All beaver pelts must be taken before a salaried game protector before April 20.

No trapping of beavers will be permitted within state game refuges.

Detailed information in pamphlet form outlining all the rules and regulations of the beaver season can be secured by writing the Board of Game Commissioners at Harrisburg.

New Wilmington At Shenango For County Loop Tilt

New Wilmington High Will Send Strong Quintet To Shenango Tonight

John Eagleson, coach of the New Wilmington high school quintet, will take his passers to Shenango High tonight, where the two school boys teams will meet in a Lawrence County league battle.

The Raineymen have been having some tough breaks this year, and although they have dropped several frays, they are a strong club and will be out to avenge the defeat handed them several weeks ago by the college town passers on the New Wilmington floor.

Coach Eagleson will start Ferris and Borowitz on the forwards, Axe will get the call for the pivot, and Captain Eagleson and Clark will get the bids for guard duty. McCaslin, forward, will probably see plenty of action in the fray.

Friday night the local passers will complete their season when they meet the fast-stepping Emeric coached machine from East Brook. This East Brook team has been going good the latter half of their schedule and are favored to win over the college town passers.

Pick Leaders In Section 18

Two Union High Players Given Places On All-Star Team

ZELIENOPLE BOY GETS CENTER CALL

While the schools are smaller in section 18 of the WPAL Basketball League, the difference in quality between them and the sections containing the more populated centers is not as great proportionately. Some of the fastest basketball seen in this section was played by these teams this year, and of these games Union township high school had its share.

Picking an all-section team for section 18 is a greater task than that of section 3. In section three there were a number of standouts, notably Reiber and Kominic. In section 18 almost every team in the league had one player that rates consideration and the selection here of an all-section team is made with the full knowledge that the selection of any expert, or even a second grade expert, will immediately be seized upon by the critics and torn limb from limb.

Realizing fully the hardship which prompts anyone to select a team of firsts, the following selection for section 18 is made. In the selection players and coaches alike were asked to assist and the result of the collaboration follows.

First team:
Boron, F.—Union township.
Dickey, F.—Mars.
Sankey, C.—Zellenople.
Ripper, G.—Evans City.
Morrison, G.—Union township.

No apology is needed for the selection of two Union township players on this mythical team, Boron, forward and Morrison, guard. Boron is a fast passer, an accurate shot and a spark plug for any team.

Morrison got his share of field goals and he took the tipoff from his opponents consistently and was responsible for a lot of points.

The other guard is Ripper of Evans City. This lad made things uncomfortable for every team Evans City opposed and is well worth placing on the first team of Section 18.

The second team of Section 18 follows:
Painter, F.—Evans City.
Monico, F.—Union township.
Schaefer, C.—Union township.
Hemphill, G.—Karns City.
Frankenstein, G.—Zellenople.

Honorable mention goes to the following players: Richardson, Zellenople; Denbow, Evans City; White, Union; Graham, Slippery Rock; Proffitt, Mars; McCarvey, Karns City and Smith, Slippery Rock.

St. Michaels Reserves Beat Rotary Troop 1

St. Michaels Reserves defeated Rotary Troop 1 in basketball at Ben Franklin Junior high gymnasium, Saturday, 21 to 14. Carik and Dugan scored 17 of the 21 points. Kneram scored six of the 14 points for Rotary Troop 1. The victory was the third consecutive win for St. Michaels Reserves.

Talk of a class war is rot in a land where the humblest can approach the highest and say: "Gotta light?"

Thirteen Floor Victories Hung Up By High Five

New Castle High Basketball Team Compiles Fine Record; Lose Only Two Games

Section Three Title Is Won For Eighth Time In Recent Years; Scored 457 Points

In the basketball season which has just closed, save for the WPAL eliminations, New Castle High School compiled a record which was good, but not brilliant. Not brilliant because of their showing in some games, but good in the fact that they won all their WPAL league games, defeated the Pitt Freshmen and should have defeated Massanutten Academy. The one game lost to New Kensington at New Kensington on December 29, 1933 was thoroughly lost as the score shows, 29-18.

Of the entire season New Castle looked its best against the Pitt Freshmen. This game was the high spot of the season and on that particular night New Castle looked like champions. They did everything right, the shots from the field dropped when they should, and the guarding of the giant Pitt team was something to behold.

Won Thirteen
In the game against Massanutten Academy New Castle led to the last two minutes of play when the Virginia lads staged a terrific drive. After holding them all through the game New Castle cracked just long enough to let the opponents nose out a 32-30 victory.

Fifteen games were played in all, eight of them league games. The eight league games were won, and the season total shows 13 out of 15 won. New Castle averaged 30 7-15 points per game, a total of 457, as against an average of 23 4-15 for their opponents, a total of 349. The detailed record of the team for the season follows:

New Castle 28—New Kensington 22
New Castle 27—South High (Pa.) 26
New Castle 29—Warren, O. 18
New Castle 29—New Brighton 28
New Castle 20—Beaver Falls 16
New Castle 42—Ellwood City 15
New Castle 17—Butler 21
New Castle 26—New Kensington 29
New Castle 44—South Hills (Pa.) 21

New Castle 32—Massanutten Academy 34
New Castle 34—New Brighton 23
New Castle 36—Beaver Falls 20
New Castle 29—Pitt Freshmen 25
New Castle 35—Ellwood City 30
New Castle 29—Butler 21
Totals: New Castle 457; Opponents 349.

League games:
Games played—15
Games won—13
Games lost—2
League games won—8
League games lost—0
Average points per game—New Castle 30 7-15; Opponents 23 4-15.

Falcons To Play Pittsburgh Five On Floor Tonight

New Castle Polish Falcons will play the strong South Side quintet of Pittsburgh at the Polish Falcon floor on Miller avenue, tonight it was announced by Martin Kolodjeski, director of the Falcons today.

The Yellow Jackets girls will play the Epworth church girls team of the Youngstown, Ohio league at 7:15 o'clock as a preliminary game. The local Falcons are in second place in the league standing at the present time with three victories and one defeat. The Natoma team is leading the league with two victories and no defeats.

With quite a few New Castle people in Miami it is probable that some of them will take in the Carnera-Loughran show Wednesday night. Loughran is 31, Carnera 27. Carnera has been fighting four years. Loughran is 75 pounds weight advance. Betting favors the champion.

SVRIAN EAGLES LOSE
Svrian Eagles basketball team lost to the Pulaski Eagles of Farrell, by a score of 25 to 18.

Frank Janosik led the Waynesburg attack on Washington & Jefferson last night at Washington and Waynesburg won 45 to 32. Janosik scored seven goals from the field and hooped a point from the free throw line. His mate, McCracken, shot five field goals. Centre Grable of the Presidents scored 11 points.

Grove City college furnished little opposition to Geneva last night at Beaver Falls, the latter winning 55

Akron Man Gives Fine Address To Foremen's Club

College Professor Delivers Address On "Manpower Against Horsepower" Here

PLANS COMPLETED FOR CLUB'S FAMILY NIGHT

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 27.—Foremen's Club of the local National Tube Company spent a profitable evening last night in the Shelby Club House when they heard Prof. Fred E. Ayres, Dean of the Engineering College of Akron University, at their regular monthly meeting.

Prof. Ayres delivered an address on "Manpower Against Horsepower," which proved very enlightening and educational. He told of the proper utilization of energy and the rapid replacement of manpower with horsepower, which in turn has brought about the present conditions. He pointed out that the continued use of mechanics is putting the human race in a dire predicament. Another interesting fact he brought out that 80 per cent of the people of this country with an income of $2,000 or less practically did all the buying. When the remaining 20 per cent which include the financier, manufacturer, and industrialist had accumulated the money spent and did not place it again into circulation, which was the case, then we have our present depression. He stated that the purpose of the CWA and PWA, which is being sponsored by the federal government, is to put money into the workingman's hand again, who will again put it into circulation.

In closing the speaker urged that the public change their ideas of a man, and consider not by what he has, but what he is.

President J. M. McDanel and Dick Downing, chairman of the entertainment committee, announced that a wonderful program has been arranged for the club's family night which will be held Saturday evening at the club house.

THINKS THE WORLD OF THE NEW NASH

Already, 20% MORE 1934 Nash Cars have been Shipped than Last Year's Total Production of Previous Models!

Individually-Sprung Front Wheels Optional on All Models

AMERICA shows it thinks the world of Nash. The public is not only talking about the 1934 Nash—the public is buying the 1934 Nash. Already shipments of these new models far exceed last year's total production of 1933 models!

"Great!" says America—looking at Nash style. "You've styled a car that's a dream to the eye—and your new Nash interiors walk off with all honors for luxurious treatment."

"Great!" says America—speaking of Nash performance. "You've certainly put new magic into motor car power with your Twin Ignition valve-in-head motor. It gives Nash an entirely different 'feeling' from any other car."

"Great!" says America—of the new Nash built-in clear-vision ventilation system; the individually-sprung front wheels (optional at slight extra cost); the coincidental starter; the equal-action brakes—and all the other new Nash developments.

Yes, the new Nash has EVERYTHING! Nash popularity and Nash deliveries register a great success!

STOCKS

Stock Market Turns Sluggish

List Makes Feeble Attempt To Stage Technical Rally In Dull Market

LEADERS YIELD MOST OF GAINS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The stock market turned dull and sluggish today with the list making feeble attempts to stage a technical rally, under the leadership of the rail, steel and motor shares. These efforts, though, met with little success as trading tapered off sharply and the ticker stood still for seconds at a time.

Commodity markets failed to provide any stimulation for a recovery in stocks. Wheat was barely steady around yesterday's closing prices, while cotton declined another 50 cents a bushel as a result of the move to amend the bankhead acreage bill in the house.

The failure of the list to meet with any impressive buying and therefore rally brought a dribble of short selling and liquidation into appearance at the end of the first hour and prices began to move slightly lower than yesterday's close.

New York Central and Southern Railway, early leaders in the rails ran into some further liquidation at the end of the first hour and yielded most of their earlier gains.

United States Steel and the other industrial shares met with a similar fate. Auburn was a strong spot in the motors holding consistently above its previous close. Chrysler and General Motors, though, failed to do anything. American Car again displayed independent strength rising fractionally on small volume.

There will be three basketball games on the Ben Franklin Junior High floor Wednesday evening. The first game will start at 6:30 o'clock and will bring together the Young Yankees and Little Bens.

The second game will find the Franklin High Reserves will play the former Franklin High stars who graduated to Senior High at the semester including O'Brien, Jokinen, Vargo, Dutkin and DeMarco.

The feature game on the evening bill will bring together the Franklin High varsity team and the Franklin High Faculty teams. The Faculty won last year and hope to repeat. The Faculty team will be made up of Coach Emmett Gillaspie, Coach Bill Wallace, George Duell, Austin Cowmeadow, Vance, Hockenberry and Racioppo.

There is a small admission of five cents for students to the game and 10 cents for all others who care to witness the three games.

Extortionists Walk Into Trap At St. Louis, Mo.

Detectives Kill Two Extortionists In Gun Battle In Apartment House

(International News Service)
 ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 27.—Two police characters who walked into a trap set for extortionists were dead today following a revolver battle in which Detective James Moberk was wounded in the shoulder.
 Detectives were waiting in ambush in the apartment of Michael Accardi, target of the extortionists when the pair arrived at the appointed time. The exchange of gunfire ensued.
 One of the alleged extortionists was identified as Norman Godier, 30, ex-convict and a member of the once powerful "cuckoo" gang. Police said the other victim was Jas. V. Griffen, 24.
 Five men robbed Accardi of $150 and warned him they would call at 1 p. m. and murder him unless he had $2,300 ready. Accardi reported it to police and eight detectives were waiting.

Business Reports Occupy Lions At Noon-Hour Session

Sales of hand-made articles which Lawrence county blind folk provided for the recent three-day public sale which the New Castle Lions club sponsored at the New Castle Dry Goods company netted $22.45, the Lions club was told at its weekly luncheon today.
 Club business occupied the members' attention today. There were no speakers.
 President Paul G. Dingledy appointed B. K. Thacker, Attorney W. D. Coburn and Miles E. Myers as the program committee for the next four months. Chairman William Fenton of the publicity committee announced that a story and photographs of the blind work sale here, directed by Miss Dorothy Hunter, herself blind, has been sent to Lions International, club organ, for publication. The Lions Boy Scouts, 18 of them in Troop 5, are taking an active interest in their work. Charles Fife, chairman of the club's scout committee reported.
 New members reported today were Dr. Amzi Reynolds, Uno Leivo and Numa F. Vidal. A guest was J. W. Staudinger, a manager of the New Castle Dry Goods store.
 The club's blind work committee also announced that three pairs of new glasses have been purchased for school children during February.

Instruct White To Represent City

Will Offer Papers And Take Whatever Proceedings Necessary In Hearing

Council convened in city hall today and instructed Solicitor Robert White to appear for the city and to offer such papers and proceedings as necessary in the injunction proceedings brought against the city as the result of the closing by Mayor Mayne of the West Washington street bridge which spans the Shenango river, hearing is to be held by Lawrence county court Wednesday.
 The action was brought by Attorney Alvah Shumaker counsel for firms west of the bridge.
 During his Friday's talkfest with council Shumaker claimed that means of entrance to the business houses had been shut off which hurt their business.
 The action he brought was directed against the county commissioners, city of New Castle, Mayor Mayne and the several councilmen.
 White will represent the city, mayor and councilmen in the proceedings.
